

WHO IS GOD

ENGLISH VERSION OF YAAR KADAVUL

SATHYAM SHANTHI PRANAM!
SHANTHI SATHYAM PRANAM!
VASI VASIYANTHAM VASIYANTHAHA!

ENGLISH VERSION OF TAMIL BOOK
"YAAR KADAVUL"

Our sincere thanks to the administration of “Idhayam Pesugirathu”!

---

Yaghava – Vasiya Foundation
Tambaram Velachery Main Road, Medavakkam,
Chennai – 600 302. Telephone: 2277 1188

First Edition	:	2006
Released	:	15.05.2006
Place	:	Ammanpuram, Thirunelveli District
Book Form	:	Crown 1/8 size
Quality of Paper	:	70 GSM Belapur
Size of the Font	:	12 Points
Total Steps	:	500
Binding	:	Perfect
Computer	:	Win Graphics, Chennai 12
Printed by	:	Thiripuram Press, Chennai - 12
		Telephone: 26426165

GRACIOUS GOD YAGHAVA

Introduction

Gracious, Divine God Yaghava and some of his loved ones who have had rare experiences with him have been interviewed under the heading "Who is God", and this is an article published for 36 weeks in the weekly magazine “Idhayam Pesugirathu”.

This interview has taken place from 2.5.1999 to 2.1.2000.

This collection of articles shows us a new dimension of God Yaghava. On 26.12.2000, Yaghava left this world. This publication of that period, set to become very important.

Who is God? To this delicate question, Yaghava has bestowed us subtle philosophies.

Those who want to know the definition of 'God' should read and research this book.

Those who say God exists, will try to know God.

This is a delightful treat for such readers. How would it be like if God himself spoke about God? It was a learning experience. Read this book and get that pleasure.

The new concept of Yaghava is, God, Almighty, Supreme being [KADAVUL in Tamil language] is different, Lord of the celestial world [AANDAVAN in Tamil language] is different and Sovereign-supreme of the terrestrial world [IRAIVAN in Tamil language] is different! Is this the true ideology of Hindhu Trinity? [Philosophy of the three Supreme Gods BRAHMA, VISHNU, SHIVA in Hindu religion] Sound is the origin of all– Yaghava’s new vedham [scripture] is, sound is God! The message we know so far is that God is a form of Light!

Being omnipresent, that which transcends the boundaries, and being supreme of all – is it not the sound? So, is it not true that God is in the form of sound?

"God has noticed our procedure of life in his vedhas! [scriptures] It is not in the form of LIPI [divine writings of God], but it is in the form of sound!"

"God cannot be seen!" Because God is not in a form but is a sound. We can only feel it; cannot see it." Don't these words of wisdom eradicate religious differences? Didn't Yaghava say this to the entire humanity to realize it? The air in the form of soul is within you as a sound! If it leaves you, the sound will stop and you will be considered dead!

Yaghava says 'Keep working. You can feel the sound increasing inside you!' Yaghava suggests the high philosophy that Work is Spiritual, Work is Wisdom, and Work is God!

Whatever you do, you can't see God. So, don't wander in search of God. That is not your duty. Do the work for which you were born to do. You will not sin as much as you work'. Yaghava teaches life education in an enriched manner. We sin and do many things to get rid of sins. There is no use. Yaghava says to work hard to get rid of your sin. Is it not an effective lesson?

"Spend half of your life by working hard! Try to realize the sound that is inside you precisely. If you get that practice, somehow the time for sin will be reduced! That will reduce the number of your sinful births".

Is it not the path shown by the Creator?

'Spiritualist is the one who makes his way towards the sound of the soul! The one who is wise enough to realize the soul, why will he need others for guidance? Wisdom is gained by him. Then, he will be wise enough to distinguish between what is good and what is bad and will become a saint!'

He narrated the dignity of labour as only by performing the duty of labour, one can strengthen the soul! Yaghava is the one who worked hard, rose through hard work, and he set an example to the world!

Yaghava says, "Living without the benefit of holy matrimony is akin to living in the grave", also says, "Home is the place where we can understand between good and bad and also between joy and sorrow. That's why I got married". In his life, he did as he said. He also says that we don't need to live like an anchorite.

"If you are not a good human, how can the world be happy and quiet? No. It can't be. That's why. That is the condition of today". He says this as the reason for all the calamities taking place in the world.

'To reform this world, "Hearts should be opened. If it opens, you will get the whole paradise" saying so, he gives us hope. "Believe your fellow-men. Show your kindness; If you become kind, deceit will get destroyed; If deceit is destroyed, violence will also get destroyed". "Believe in yourself. If you believe in yourself, you will not think about destroying others". Like this, he has designed the principles for us to live well.

Going on reading this book will be like piling up gems, jades and diamonds by digging.

Why did we get this life? What are the difficulties we are facing? What should we do to get rid of the difficulties? Who is God? How is He? Should we worship Him? Should we go in search of Him? How to lead a peaceful life? What is our duty? You can get answers for these types of questions, if you read this book.

Seek the answers. Live in prosperity.

Place: Chennai

Date: 7.05.2006

1. WHO IS GOD YAGHAVA?

Looks like a rustic;

Talks like a mystic;

A freak, while considering his swirling thoughts, speculating in the same direction.....

A rationalist who is misinterpreted as an atheist, while discussing spirituality!

That is how GOD YAGHAVA [YAGHAVA MUNIVAR] is judged by everyone by his outward appearance!

When looked still in depth, he is an unpretentious person who doesn't adorn spirituality with saffron dress.

A sharp-witted person, who expresses himself in a rural language with a word within a word, also the gist of godliness in his concept.

One who is crazy at a particular thing, gets the best out of that craziness. It is generally said that one will be a genius in whatever he is mad at or thinks of; A glowing wise bird like a Spiritual Lunatic - and Father of philosophy!

Some people look at his speech and appearance and estimate him wrongly! Is it his fault? Or 'Is it the fault of the surface knowledge of the dilettantes who judge him with their futile cleverness? Many such instances appear and occupy our mind! If an ancient poem is given in the hands of today's young man – he will say that the poem is incomprehensible. Is this the fault of the ancient poems? or is it the fault of the learned person?

If we conclude that what we do not understand is meaningless, then science will not develop in this world. True wisdom will not flourish! Who is God Yaghava?

He says, 'I am a Nemophilist, Hunter, and a Way-farer'!

But whatever he foretold casually with his knowledge of time, mark him as phenomenal! A message in Malai Murasu [Name of a newspaper in Tamil] on the evening of 12.4.99.... BJP Government will collapse. Even DMK supports, the government cannot be saved! Jayalalitha has to face a bad time! Yaghava's message has come out in that newspaper. On the evening of the 17th, even after DMK's support, the downfall of Vajpayee's Government had happened.

While we were actively talking to him about world affairs, he suddenly stopped talking and said, "Look... I am hearing the crying sound of birds. Some famous leader is going to die" .....

When the newspaper was flipped, the next morning, a death message! Yes! News of Abdul Samad's death! Everyone used to say, 'That wise bird would talk to the birds' - it dawned on mind! On one occasion, when we come to know that he has the power to predict time, we have published the same in 'Idhayam'. [Tamil magazine]

Can't remember whether it was the year 94 or 95... He said Kasi will split. In the next few days there was an earthquake in Kasi. Publisher Maniyan was deeply impressed and surprised, and wrote in Idhayam, as 'Don't judge his innerlight by his outward appearance! We may not know which snake is in which pit – like that there may be a marvellous penetrating vision in God Yaghava who looks like a Way-farer! ...

Can list many examples like this..... It is not our purpose. What does God Yaghava actually say? The one who calls himself as a Nemophilist, the seeker of the best and searching for the best in everything! We tried to understand what his point of view was about True wisdom. We went to have a discussion with him.

2. WHO IS GOD?

“Come on! Have you kept the title as "Who is God?”

'God is the one who rules the entire universe. He is the sound! He is the origin of all! He is the greatest of all! The superior of all who is filled in everywhere, He is above all and beyond all and he transcends everything by his permanence'.

He is God! – I am denoting only him - I refer to the sound by the word as YAGHAVA.

I told something; but some misunderstood wrongly! It happens like this in everything.

The sciolism of misconceiving the real object by erecting an alternate image and thereby being deceived and also deceiving everyone is happening till today!

I am trying to explain because such a disaster should not occur in the future when it comes to my words. How many explanations have to be given even for this basic thing? If so, how many explanations do we have to give about philosophies, vedhas [scriptures], and God? How difficult is it to explain God? To realize God is as easy as it is hard. It is easy to come across pseudo-godmen, but very difficult to identify them! Yes! True! I will tell you more....

'Many people in the town are saying that they are God and dancing... Some people are pulling out Lord Shiva [LINGA, idol of shiva] from the mouth. Pretending to produce this, posing to produce that, out of empty hand.... Performing a common trick of legerdemain... God couldn't tolerate this. That is why God landed as a thunder in an Ashram [Hindhu monastery] of a fake person in Pudukkottai last week.

There is a fight going on between KADAVUL [God, Almighty, Supreme being] and IRAIVAN [Sovereign-Supreme of the terrestrial being, Mother Earth].... Kadavul has said to Iraivan, 'You keep quiet. I will take care.' So, hereafter there is going to be a global cataclysm.....

Why are you confused?... 'You are puzzled because you are thinking that KADAVUL and IRAIVAN are all same, don't you? But, why Yaghava says that there is a fight between KADAVUL and IRAIVAN ..... That's why you are confused isn't it? KADAVUL is different; AANDAVAN is different; IRAIVAN is different! [In Tamil language, KADAVUL, AANDAVAN, IRAIVAN, denotes God. But Yaghava explains the difference between the three. According to Yaghava's philosophy, 'KADAVUL IS GOD, ALMIGHTY, SUPERIOR OF ALL. 'AANDAVAN' IS THE LORD OF THE CELESTIAL WORLD AND 'IRAIVAN' IS THE SOVEREIGN-SUPREME OF THE TERRESTRIAL WORLD, MOTHER EARTH, RELATED TO EARTH, NATURE] Without this knowledge, some persons are confusing the people.

3. GOD, LORD AND SOVEREIGN SUPREME

God, Almighty, the superior of all, rules the Eternal world [PRAPANCHAM in Inanyam language, abode of Gods and Goddesses, Pleroma]

Lord of the celestial worlds administrates 108 zones; [KAANDAM in Inanyam language, zones or worlds in the upper world]

Earth is ruled by the Sovereign-Supreme of the terrestrial world!

God is in the form of sound!

Lord is circumambulating the vast firmament of heavens!

Earth mother is giving food!

Everything is growing upon the land. We are eating that... God tells us to intake that which grows upon the land and live with fellow men without any conflicts.

Does the man listen? He is doing sin; At the end, earth [land] makes the man a prey for itself! God takes back his sound which is pulsating in a human being.

God has marked this movement of life in Vedhas! [original ancient scriptures in Inanyam language.] It is not in the form of Lipi; [Divine writings of God] It is in the form of sound! Goddesses [Devis'] and Mystics [Siddhas] are telling the meaning of that sound to this world.... But no one is hearing it.....

God is trying to make man understand by merging with everyone in the form of breath and in the beating of the pulse. As it is not realized, God who is in the form of sound, exits from the human body and mingles with the supreme being! After, when the soul leaves the body, the earth [land] eats the body!

Don't rove around and search for God, Lord and Sovereign-supreme.! It is inside you. It is before your eyes in the form of your father and mother. Worship them.... Only then you can see God!

Leaving that, do not search somewhere else! God cannot be seen! Because God has no image. God is in the form of sound. God can only be felt, can't be seen! If you don't commit sins, you will indwell in God and God will make you one with himself!

So don't sin! Avoid and get rid of sin. You can understand the supreme-being! Don't talk about atheism. Atheism is the knowledge of something which comes to a person of questionable knowledge who does not understand! The PRAPANCHAM [Eternal world] is very vast. There are 111 KAANDAMS [Zones of the upper world]. There are 111 crores of MANDALAMS [Zones or divisions where crores of sun rotate] for each KAANDAM.

In those zones of the upper world, there are billions of suns. You can't even tolerate a single scintillating sun! How can an atheist understand the Lord of the celestial world who rules crores of suns, and also the God who is superior to Lord?

Is the man sensible who considers everything as lies which he cannot understand? He is a person who does not understand! He has not realized the meaning of this earth!

Keep working. Then the sound that resides in you will increase. Try to understand it. If you are able to understand it, your inner sound will increase. Try to understand your inner sound. If you are able to understand it, you can hear the sound of your fellow creatures who are living and moving by sound.

If you understand that the sound is God, you will not hurt others! You will not ruin others! You will worship that sound! You will start to realize the world. The mystery of the universe can be grasped... If you understand that infinite macrocosms, the “I” [ego] in you will get destroyed. Kindness will increase. You can view the Sovereign-supreme of the terrestrial world. Mother Earth will show you the Lord of the celestial world. The Lord will take you to God, Almighty, the supreme-being. God will tell you how he is within you....

It is very easy to say; very difficult to execute.... Without this difficulty, if you want to find who God is and how to reach him, you have to realize and find out the Gods and Siddhas. How will you find out?

4. HOW TO STOP THE DESTRUCTION?

The hardship undergoing to get something is greater than actually getting it! How much did your mother struggle when you were born? That is the feeling to understand! If you are drawn nigh to God, you would have to struggle a lot in life! Everyone wants to have wealth! But they neglect and set aside their Mother and Father as unwanted! Because this kind of thinking increased among people, the land split. Even the Himalayas are shaking!

The sun is showering fire!

How is this going to change? Who is going to change?

Can the fake monks under the guise of saffron dress who swindle money change this plight? There is none; No one can do this! Because, you are the one who committed sins... You have to intend a remedy....

How are you going to do it? When you are not able to realize the inner self, how are you going to understand God who is administrating the world, the entire cosmos and the eternal world, by revealing his presence as sound?

Can't... You can't until your life is over! You will realize what all you did in this world, only when your soul leaves your physical body and enters into the eternal body.

So, don't wander in search of God!

Do your work for which you are born to do! Work hard...The more you work, the more your sin will cease to exist. Don't be arrogant! Nothing is going to be achieved out of that arrogance!

If the tree gets arrogant, it blooms and gives vegetables & fruits. If you get arrogant, you'll give birth to another!

So, spend your half-life by working; Try to understand your inner sound accurately. If that training comes to you, it will reduce the time to commit sin! That will reduce the number of your sinful births.

On the contrary, if you search for religion - Guru, [religious leaders] you will be orally disappointed.... Try to realize Mother earth, [Land - Sovereign-Supreme of the terrestrial world] on which you are standing. There is so much to know. There is much possibility to understand the Lord of the celestial world in your own proximity! For that you have to inlet the sound which helped you to understand life, while roaming around upon donkey as a - Nemophilist, –as a Hunter -and as a Way-farer! Try to realize it without neglecting it! It will be like a helping crutch in your life. It will make you understand what is sorrow; and what is happiness. A medium is required to focus and regularize any power! Wire is required to carry electrical power! In Such wise, by feeding and nurturing, and also according to your sins and virtues, it is the Sovereign-Supreme of the terrestrial world [Mother Earth] who controls your inner sound, and by means of Lord, brings you in to the celestial orbit of sound in Eternal world! First try to gratify Mother Earth! For that Pooja [worshipping idols] is not necessary! A saffron dress is not necessary! Kamandalam [a metal pot that Indian monks hold in their hands] is not necessary! Do charity.

Worship the one who bore you in her womb! Listen to the widely spread sound around you!

The Sovereign- Supreme of the terrestrial world is furious because rather than doing this, people are craving to see the path from which they came and also stomping all the virtues around.

"Oh! God! I am unable to bear the atrocities people commit! I leave it to you and beg you to take care of it!" Saying so, Mother Earth begs God. Hearing the voice of unendurable agony of Earth mother, God - the supreme-being, is subjected to extreme wrath. You are going to witness the consequences! You are going to see the symptoms of it!

"Hurricane is expected to blow up this summer! Agni natchathiram ['Agni natchathiram' is viewed as the pinnacle of the summer season. The hot summertime of May month called 'Agni natchathiram' by the Ancient Tamil climatologists.] is going to blow as strong wind! People and Nature, the creation of Yogis, and Rishis, are going to stumble by the wrath of the Sovereign -Supreme of the terrestrial world. [Mother Earth]...

They say that on the 8th, the world will be destroyed.... All the planets are going to join together! It can never be destroyed; this world will never come to an end! Nonetheless, this ignorant man does not know what to say about destruction. How to end the destruction? Why is this outrage? This Wayfarer can tell you how to allay it.... It is not astrology; Sound of vedhas [Ancient scriptures in Inanyam language given by God Yaghava].... Do you know what it says?

5. WORK IS SPIRITUAL

Someone says that the world will come to an end by 5th May of next year!

Some slothful people.... Some insanes from North India, who do not have the knowledge about divine theories of the sky... clowns, and saffron dressed wretches, by their conjuring tricks threatening people that the world will come to an end; Yugham [humanworld] will be destroyed.

They extort money from people by such threats! But this Yugham [human world] which was created by God will never be destroyed! - This world will never come to an end!

When the flower does not emit fragrance, when the girl does not attain puberty, and the day when the flower does not bear honey, is the day, when this world will be destroyed! The underlying meaning of "World will be destroyed" is, the fallible sinners in this world will be destroyed. If the world comes to an end, God, Lord, and Sovereign-Supreme, will not have any work!

Without knowing this – Some people without the knowledge about divine theories of the sky are relating some stories! 2000 years ago, Were there any religions? Were there any temples? Nothing. Because, at that period man was so good – and he was able to understand the truth!

So, the Gods, and Mystics [Siddhas] were with him. They told him everything beforehand. As trickery and sophistry started to branch out in this world, - Goddesses [Devis'], Gods, [Munivars] and Mystics [Siddhas] went far away! Now he is searching everywhere. While the incarnations were alive, he killed, and he longs when they left him; Making and worshipping idols; pouring milk! No need for all these! God is in your head, the Lord is within your body, and the Sovereign-Supreme is in your feet, as sound – light – and latent being, [hidden] –by maintaining solitude and inherent meaning! I have been saying this for a long time. Is he listening? He is not listening; He is not understanding the Sound – and the God who dwells in that sound. He is thumping his chest, boasts and says that his science is great!

What can you do with your Science? If you say that it will rain, hot sun starts to shine; If you forecast a sunny day, the wind starts to blow! Your Science cannot say anything! It cannot stop anything!

But God can do everything. He can create millions of human beings and also at the same time, he can create them distinct from each other.

He can make hundreds of birds to build their nests in a tree and make each and every bird to identify its own nest. He can make the mountains to grow with his sound;

He can grow plants & flowers and emanate fragrance! To make human beings realize furtively, he can make some people roam around this earth!

"Don't commit mistakes! Don't spoil others! If you harass others, I will afflict your body and make your soul rejoice! I will please God who is pulsating in you and lives within you as sound in your soul" - says the Sovereign-Supreme of the terrestrial world, who bears your feet! Realize that and live.

God only rewards those who work. Let me tell you a story, listen...

A snake catcher... Every day he has to catch at least 4 snakes and sell its skin for his living.... One day he could not find even a single snake....

He was returning sadly. On the way, he saw an old woman sitting near the fence and worshipping God. The snake catcher went nearby and saw. She was worshipping a snake. The snake catcher was so happy. He blew his Pipe and caught the snake, peeled off the skin, separated the venom in a bottle. His income was Rs.20/- Did God reward the woman who worshipped? He rewarded only the person who worked!

Here lies the subtlety of God!

Whatever you want to become, it is absolutely not in your hands. Your destiny is written in the womb itself... You are a God's toy. God gives blood, flesh and marrow to it and makes the body dance.

Dancing only is your job; Working is only your duty. If you don't do that, something undesirable will happen to you. If that should not happen to you, you have to understand the sound of the soul. How will you understand? Can you? Try it! Then I will tell you what to do.....!

6. YOGI

Do you feel like asking me, "You are ceaselessly reiterating soul... soul - What is this?... Why to confuse man by deceiving today's life by talking about birth and subtlety! Don't you? Ask like that..... You will get only if you ask."

Soul will never be destroyed... It is throbbing in each and everyone in the form of heart. According to your good and bad deeds, God snatches your sound from you either early or later! From the Sovereign-Supreme of the terrestrial world, the sound reaches God- the Supreme-being, through the Lord of the celestial world, who surveys from the sky, and again sent back by keeping it in another body....

That is how the work is performed in the eternal world. In this, you are just a tool. One who uses it and directs it is God. If you realize this, you will come to know whether your labour should be used for worldly pleasures or for transcendental meditation [Yogham].

There are so many sages in forests and mountains. There are three types among them. The first category was those who attained wisdom in their early ages. The next category was those who were entangled in family ties and ruined. The last category were saints and sages. But, none of them are Yogis! [Practitioner of yoga, and meditation, one who leads a monastic life, spiritualist]

Only a Yogi can understand the movement of all the worlds. Their prophetic vision will visualize all the three ages. Whatever he sees, it will come under his control. The tiger will subdue; Peacock will dance; Clouds will shower; Fire will not burn; They will not be affected by frost-bite. Do you want to know how to reach that exalted Yogic state? Do you say that by wearing a saffron dress, you can reach the stage? No. Never!

When I was young, one day I went to take a bath in our village pond. While bathing, I spread my dhoti [traditional South Indian dress, white cloth] on the pond like a net. All the fish swarmed in it. Nearby, a saffron dressed person also spread his saffron coloured dhoti like me. None of the fish came in.

Then a voice sounded in and said... 'Did you notice? The fishes which gathered automatically in a pure white dhoti, ran away after seeing a saffron dhoti... The truth that is realized by fishes is not realized by humanity!' Thus, the voice sarcastically remarked! This is the matter. Yogic stage is not that which thinks of changing what already exists or to think that he can become a saint after changing what already exists! Without wearing a saffron dress one can lead a spiritual life. You can live with your wife. But, you need to know how to stay away from her. You may have enough food to eat. But, you have to learn not to eat even if you are hungry.

In the tug of war between us and our desires, do we control our desires or our desires control us? If our desires are controlled by us, it is called Yogham. Without understanding this, while many of the people consider themselves as superior, the one who is noble should allow them to have their ways and depart from them. One should not engage in a fight with them to prove who is superior. At one time, a person came to stir up a quarrel.

The rage in my saint-hood was infuriated. The next moment, I left immediately. A Yogi who gains wisdom, identifies poison by merely seeing it. A Yogi who gains experience, identifies poison only after consuming it. Only a wise yogi is blessed with prophetic vision. That's why God has given me the clariture to realize what happened in the past, and what's going to happen in the future through sound. God does not grant this power to everyone. Only a few are destined to get this power as a favour for their good deeds in their previous births. At some point of time, such divine and blessed people take birth in this world.

We should not correlate such exceptional divine people with our life.

Because they have seen so many ages. By observing again and again, by their acute perception, they have an ability to understand all the languages, including the language of birds. You can see them. To understand them, you have to perform your duties and work continuously without getting bored. Worship your mother who bore you and protected you in her womb, before you leave this world. That is your duty. Keep on doing it. You will acquire Yogic powers. You can recognize Yogis - Nemophilist - Hunters - Way-farers and get a glimpse of them.

In heavy rain, rain water leaks from the roof and dampens the houses. In such a situation, if some people knock on your door, and ask for an accomodation, provide them shelter with a generous heart. Think that your home is a place where your fellow human beings can also stay. Cultivate the habit of thinking that no other woman belongs to you except your wife!

Wealth is transitory. Gold will not stay with you permanently. The only thing that can stay forever is your Dharma [charity]! You can get peace only at God's feet! So, keep an eye steadily on your actions. The Sovereign-Supreme of the terrestrial world will have mercy on you! Sovereign- Supreme will set you free from all the hindrances, and lead you safely to the correct destination! Whether the purpose of the birth is over or not, don't forget that a birth is travelling towards an end. Your journey will continue without any obstacles!

I left home at the age of seven; I forgot my kith and kins. By running in the forest, and by hunting, and by roaming as a Way-farer wherever my legs led me, the scenes that I saw, the sufferings which I experienced, the lessons which they taught, and the wisdom I earned from those lessons – When I recall all these things, ages roll on.

7. KNOWING THE WORLD BY HOLDING BEGGING PLATE...

Murugan, the author of 'Idhayam Pesugirathu', told me that, "A sage told me that you were born as Sivavakkiyar in your previous birth." After hearing this, I smiled.... Who I was, Where and When I was born in my previous births, was known only to me and to God who conducts the sound of my soul! My soul has now taken the 54th birth! I took my 40 births outside India. I finished my 11 births in North India! I have completed my 52nd birth in Thanjavur and my 53rd birth in Madurai and have taken this birth in Ammanpuram Village near Thiruchendur in Thoothukudi District. On 2nd March 1941, at 9.30 am, I came from my mother's womb and descended to the earth, which is ruled by the Sovereign-Supreme!

When I was two years old, God took my father away, thinking that my father's duty was over in this world after he left me in my mother's womb. Though I had two sisters and a brother, I yearned for loneliness. As I knew about the duty and purpose of my birth, it didn't occur to me to go to school. As I can understand this world by God's sound, my mind didn't seek any teacher's help to study the written format.

To explain the severity of poverty, there is a saying that 'Cats are sleeping in the kitchen'. Truly, so many cats were sleeping in my kitchen! Always, my mother used to bemoan, sob and say 'Why have you born as a son to a distressed mother like me!'. But I will never get annoyed, I can even argue against Sovereign- Supreme, but not against my mother. Because, a message conveyed to me by God is that the Creator manifests himself in the form of mother- and father. So, my mother's anguish and her tears drove me to do the work for which I have come to this world. -

Mother gave me the lid of the rice pot, and tore her white saree into two pieces and gave them to me. I received it and started to walk... I went by begging in four houses... Thus, my Yogic life [spiritual life] started!

Those who are divine and blessed will naturally have modesty, politeness, and egolessness, from the moment of conception in the womb. That is why neither my poverty nor my half nakedness disturbed me. I started begging at the age of six, because I know that I have to beg from house to house to gain Yogic powers. [spiritual powers]

The only hip cloth in my body didn't bother me as I knew very well, full dress cannot be worn by the one who had renounced everything completely! Can the four walls belong to one who came to this world to fulfil his duty? Not only cannot. but should not.... So, I developed my relationship, bed and sleep at the Ammanpuram mutt. That is a place where the way-farers, and the aged people used to stay.... I would return to the mutt with the food I begged. Seeing the hungry old people lying down with famished stomachs and parched mouths, I would serve them with the food I brought, then I would leave the mutt for another round of begging. My life which started as a Way-farer, though the purpose of it was to make the world understand symptomatically that it was to fulfil my duties, can I remain without giving food to the mother who gave me life? Is it possible for me to feed her with my begged food? So, I changed myself as a Nemophilist.

If I cut the firewood from the forest, and carry the firewood to Arumuganeri which is 2 miles away from my village, then sell it to the fisher-folk habitat, I will get 25 paise. If I walk four times a day – nearly 16 miles by going and coming, then only I will get one rupee. I'll give it to my mother. In the night, my begging will start with white hip cloth and the lid of the rice pot given by my mother. I kept myself alive by satiating my burning hungry stomach with the food I begged and brought. I will go to Ammanpuram mutt to sleep. But I cannot sleep. As it was destined to me that I cannot sleep at night when the world sleeps, my destiny will wake me up from sleep. The sound of the birds will tell some news or other in my ears.

The next day, I will tell everything to my mother which was told by birds. One day, I told her a matter. Hearing that matter, my mother said, "I am telling the whole town that you are a compassionate person from your birth itself. Whereas, are you saying that the man who is healthy and strong like a stone will die in three days?.... Are you mad? Thus, my mother started to scold me. But on the third day, as I said, the fate of the man who was so strong like a stone was over!

I understood that my mother was afraid, by thinking whether my tongue was venomous... After that, my mother didn't say anything regarding this... and I too didn't mind...

In order to feed the mother, who gave me blood, I worked hard by cutting and selling the firewood, and by herding the cows to pastures for grazing, I reared them. and I used to give the money that I earned out of it to my house. The true Yoga is living though seemingly not living, and not living though seemingly living. By understanding these morals, I was continuing my journey. At that time, the demons who wanted to destroy the world came in front of me. Monsters appeared in the form of snakes, and also in the form of human beings, to stop me from protecting this world, for which God sent me to this world. Birds were circling around me. At one midnight, a strong voice sounded in my ears and conveyed a message that God probed me to expose him to the world, when I was eleven.

8. SUBTLETIES OF UNIVERSE

Why did God send me to this world?

Why did I wander like a Way-farer, Nemophilist, and like a Hunter?

Why did I beg at each door step by holding a begging bowl, and by wearing a hip cloth, even when I own a house to sleep, and physical strength to work?

Why did my journey continue by riding on a donkey? Why do the birds circle me? I know the answers for these questions raised by people, while I was rolling in my mother's womb itself...So, I don't like to explain it word by word. If anyone has questions with the intention of mocking me, my ears would become deaf.

To those who consider me as mysterious, and also believe that I have inner sound, I will not stop myself from disclosing the truth to them. Because, I am not that arrogant. My life continued in order to save 33 crores of Gods, Goddesses, from the clan of demons. Out of 111 kaandams [zones or worlds in the upper world] of the Eternal world, 3 kaandams were ruled by the demons. The names of those kaandams are Inalvam, Inaisthuvam, Ikaithuvam. In those kaandams, Demons and Monsters were harassing the Gods, Goddesses and Mystics...To destroy the evils, and to protect Gods, Goddesses, and Mystics is the destiny of my incarnation, which was written when I was in my mother's womb itself., and I'm doing my work.. With this birth, the purpose of my incarnation will end on March 2,2007. I will be buried in my sepulchre...

Science has developed a lot and bombs that leap from one continent to other are heaped in this age...Do you think, when there are so many scientific developments, why Yaghava is blabbering about Gods and Monsters absurdly? Don't think like that. It is wrong. Your science is now only observing the hidden things of the universe and shouts as if it discovered something new! Did your science discover any non-existent things? It showed something which existed already.

By adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing the basic five elements of nature, [air, water, land, fire, sky] it shows the result as something new. By finding something discovered new, your science makes you dance head over heels, and urges you to say in an indiscreet manner that there is No God, No Lord, and No Sovereign-Supreme! Your soul makes you function. Soul in other words, Sound. If that sound exits from your human body, will your science make that sound to re-enter your body and make a dead person alive?

You are saying that you can transplant the organs of the human body. But Sound is more accessible than that! Isn't it? But You can never bring back the sound into your body! Because all other things are organs of your body, but Sound is Soul. You can neither stop it nor make it function! Sound belongs to God! If God wills, the sound will be in your body or else out of your body! That is the subtlety of the Universe.

Even your science cannot discover this subtlety. It cannot be understood with your human knowledge also! Because, by getting that sound from God, the controller of microcosmos, by entering into this world, and by getting food from the Sovereign-Supreme [Land, Earth mother] who rules the world, a huge crowd has increased by committing sins, revenge, and treachery. Hence the Gods, Goddesses, and Mystics are not close to you. Your eyes don't have that capacity to observe some divine people who are living in this world to complete their duty. But 2005 years ago, man was afraid of sins and revenge and did not sell his duty for money! So, the divine people were with human beings. One who ruled understood this. Kings went in search of recluses.

Now-a-days, both the rulers and the people who are ruled by them are not aware of their duties. Man has become greedy and self-obsessed, and wants to acquire everything for himself... As Gods, Goddesses and Mystics could not endure this kind of selfish behaviour of human beings, they have gone to the side of the Lord, who stays between the Eternal world and the human world, and monitors everything... Some divine people are there. They have to stay here in the human world, as they have to complete their duties for which God has sent them.

Birds receive the commands of God and convey it. If I say that, some resentful people say that I have gone mad. For such offended people, I want to say this! You believe what is mentioned in your history book, like 'Birds were sent as spies', 'Swans speak'. But, If I say that birds speak, you are saying that I am a lunatic.

Use your numskull and think. Birds speak! You believe and appreciate, when it is said that if a particular Raaga [a traditional pattern of notes in Indian music] is sung, it will rain. But you are considering me 'Lunatic' when I say that birds speak. I am not insane. But the ignoramuses, who refuse to realise the truth are insanes! The one who runs away with fear when he finds a tiger, falls at the feet of the one who sits on the tiger's skin, tries to find a remedy for all his sins due to his negligence of duty! Oh! Humans! The soul will never get destroyed. It is God's property! The one who has that soul, should perform duties only! Should not wear saffron clothes! First realise this! If you realise this, you will also realise the purpose of your birth. I am performing the duty of hard work. Without wearing saffron clothes, without vending my divine powers for money, I am living by performing my duties!

It is God's command to reveal me as the one who came here to perform the duties. That's why, I slept in the mutt, even when I had a house. I ate by begging from place to place, even when I had the ability to work. I went to the forest. I roamed around on a donkey.

At the age of eleven, God's command came in the form of sound through the birds to reveal to the world that I am the one who has come to complete my duties. At that time, I was roaming around aimlessly, like a Way-farer!

One day, at midnight, I was returning all alone to Ammanpuram after watching 'Kulebagavali' [name of a Tamil movie] at Touring talkies of Arumuganeri. It was a dark and spooky night time when ghosts roamed freely ... When I came to Pudhukulakarai, I saw a young lady crying and standing under a single palm tree... Her crying sound made me turn to her side... I went near her...I looked at her deeply. Truth dawned in my mind.

9. IS YAGHAVA THEIST? OR AN ATHEIST?

"I have been reading the article "Who is God?" written by Swami. [a divine, religious person is called Swami in India as a mark of respect] While I read, horripilation occurs in the back of my neck. Something in visible form before eyes, and also in invisible form appears in mind! But clearly, I could not realise what it was! What was that? Are you a Mystic? Are you a Saint? Or a person with super divine powers? Such a bunch of questions arise like a chain, continuously in my mind and finally a debate sparks in my mind whether Yaghava is Theist? or an Atheist?" This was written by a reader V. S Mani from Kolar Gold mines, and the editor asked me to give an explanation for this on the phone.

My first answer is "I am not Swami. I am Yaghava! Yaghava means sound...It is the sound of the soul inside you. Can that sound be considered "Swami"? No! Or else, will you call yourself Swami? The name assigned to you is 'Yaghava'! So, I am not Swami, I am as always, a Nemophilist, a Way-farer, and a Hunter! Editor Murugan said, a doubt was raised by Mani that whether I am a Theist? or an Atheist? I have to answer it. A spiritualist is a messenger of God who defines God and conveys his words to the world. Soul is more important to a spiritualist than wearing a saffron dress or leading a life like a tartuffe... A spiritualist should follow his soul. I am following the sound of my soul... Now, understand for yourself who I am!

Ok! It was midnight! It was the peak time of the night. It was the time for the whole town to sleep! I am coming alone. Crying sound of a lady standing under a single palm tree was heard... My soul that always responds to other's suffering, was stunned and turned towards her. I went near that lady! Though she was crying, her beauty registered deeply in my mind. I went closer and looked at her face! Something flashed in my mind like lightning! “Turn... move away; Get back to your path”- Three voices warned me at that time! Immediately, I avoided her and her cry and started to walk on the path in which I have to travel! Whose voice were those three voices? It was the voice of three Goddesses -Vasiya, Nunva and Yanya. Vasiya means Lakshmi [Goddess of wealth] Nunva means Saraswathi [Goddess of Knowledge] Yanya means Parvathi [Goddess, who destroys the evils] These three Goddesses are always with me. They cautioned me in the form of an oracle that “The one who is crying is not a lady. She is a demoness... She has come to stop your duty and to assault you. Don't feel pity! Move away...Go in your way.” So, I left that place...

Why this drama?

It was destiny written when I was in my mother's womb itself that I should destroy the demons before I complete my eleventh year, and to destroy the monsters before I complete my twenty second year! In my early age, when I was roaming as a Way-farer, I would jump from one tree to another! If I climb on one tree, I will descend on the ninth tree. At that time, the clan of demons would follow me to assault me! But only my human body would leap from tree to tree, but my soul would transform from one body to another, and would complete my duties. By transforming my soul from one body to another, at the age of 11, I completed my duty. Demons were destroyed. I came to this world to destroy the monsters at the age of 22, which was my duty! The lady who was crying and standing under the single palm tree came to stop me from doing my duties...

But, the three Goddesses cautioned me and saved me by stating that the tears shed by her are phony tears, and they are not tears of agony!

I came back to mutt in Ammanpuram. As usual the whole town was sleeping... but I was awake. And a voice sounded in me as "Search! Search!" But it echoed as "Run! Run!"... I can search, only if I run. I can get clarity only by searching!

I have begged, I have gone to the forest and hunted also! What else now? Is it possible to understand the whole purpose of my birth in my native place? "Go... Go long... Get acquainted with new people and understand their nature. Understanding human nature is harder than counting the sand" ...By thinking so, I left Ammanpuram and came to Chennai... I joined as a cook in the oil company of S.V. Shivalinga Nadar. I had to stay in the outward appearance of a cook for about one and half years... I was burning myself in the heat of the fire in the kitchen. I burned in that heat and calmed myself. I felt as if my body became like a shining gold from fire. When I came out, the scenes of degenerated condition of people in the streets of Chennai, filled my eyes with distress. That wound of my heart... and the destiny related with that... There was a huge cry lamenting inside me, by questioning 'Why? Why is this happening?' If I look up, there would be birds in flocks flying and circling around me! The scenes inside and outside were very different from each other! It was a result of Karma. [actions] Whenever I was confused and stumbled in these thoughts Shivalinga Nadar would come to me... He would advise me that "You don't have any confusion. People who confuse you are outsiders... By confusing you, they conspire to stop you from performing your duties. So, Be careful!" By hearing his advice, my mind would get cleared! A voice sounded inside me loudly -" Do your duty in Chennai... Work is the medium which can give clarity about the past and the future'. Non-stop, hectic work for one and half years. My mind again searched my native place!

I left the city and went to the place from where I started...Again my life started in Ammanpuram. My brother and I are twins. His name is Ram and my name is Lakshmanan. I went to the forest and he went to study. My mother and my sisters did the work of cutting the weeds in the fields and lived a very humble life with those earnings. I understood my duty. Mother knows about what she has to ask me! But she was afraid to ask me anything... Because Mother had already understood that I have extraordinary divine powers... So, she was confused by thinking how to ask me? She thought that I was a mysterious incarnation of God! As I understood this, I smiled within myself.

I used to think overwhelmed with emotions that “What if I am a mysterious incarnation of God? I am your son! Mother!”- When a mother feeds her son, even if he doesn't ask for food, Should a son feed his mother only after she asks for food? No. I decided to work, but again I was confused. My mind followed the direction of my legs! The place that I reached was the graveyard in Ammanpuram.

10. HARD WORK IS WISDOM

Lord and soul- Both are always awake without sleep. When the whole town sleeps, I stay awake! Even though my body would be lying down in the mutt in Ammanpuram, my soul would be thinking about the activities of the world. Sometimes, I would not feel like resting. At that time, the graveyard in Ammanpuram was my only refuge. When I was working in the oil company of Shivalinga Nadar in Chennai, I destroyed the demon...

As one of my duties was over, I returned back to my native place, Ammanpuram. But the poor condition of my house reminded me of my duties! There was only poverty and starvation in my house.... Mother had a hesitation in her mind as she thought of her son as a mysterious incarnation of God! To relieve her from her hesitation, I had a thought to work for my mother's necessities... But mother should come out of her hesitation, that I am a mysterious incarnation...So, a thought to show myself as a normal human being arose in my mind in the burial ground where the funeral pyres were burning!

For a person who has experienced births and deaths for about 53 births, whenever the death comes, it is always like a ritual only. What is there in the human body? The wisdom that 'Everything is in the soul' was hidden in my mind. The strong moisture wind that blew in the burial ground brought that wisdom to my consciousness! The dust which covered my wisdom flew away in that wind and cleared my mind.

The wisdom given by God 'Affection is devotion', and 'Kindness is Lord', made me go to the forest again!

The dry trees were broken into firewood...

Bundles of wood piled upon me hear. A thought wavered in my mind that if a tree dies it becomes firewood. But when a human dies even the land does not accept his human body completely...I gave firewood for every kitchen. With the money that I earned out of it, the rice pot boiled in my house! I used to carry sand at the construction site of Muthu Nadar's house in Ammanpuram. When I became lethargic, I would get beaten by the stem of the banyan tree! Red scars of blood, would remind me about the purpose of life – that, “Hardwork is wisdom”.

Begging in the evenings- and sleeping in the Mutt, and riding on a donkey was my daily routine. Two weeks before, a person named Bhaskara Iyyar came to meet me from Ammanpuram. He said “Sir, in those days you used to come to Ammanpuram agraharam [Agraharam is the dwelling place of Brahmins who are considered as high caste] riding upon a donkey. A religious tradition that the donkey should not enter into agraharam would make me angry. I had driven you and also beaten you. I had thrown stones at you... I have the knowledge of religious theories, but I didn't realise your wisdom. Now, I feel so guilty and ashamed of myself for all that!” He deeply regretted it, and expressed his genuine penitence. I smiled and said, “Don't worry Iyer! Can everyone know about destiny? I came to your place. I was beaten by you! Now you are in regret for your actions! All these happened due to fate!” Saying so, I gave him solace. What I mean by this is that, realising the self is the most important knowledge that one should have! We are born in this world due to our mother and father. But do you know why we came here? We do not know. But I realised and understood the purpose of my birth. As the sun and moon have a purpose in God's creation, our birth also should have a purpose. That is not forsaking our parents. It is not exploiting others by fraudulent activities for selfish motives! It should be like one soul guiding other souls! That is the wisdom which man has to realise! If there is wisdom, there will be no conflicts, no deaths, no riots. Is it possible? No! If everyone gets this wisdom there is no birth, no karma [actions, deeds] and everyone will be like God's children in his empire. If so, is it God's will that most of the people should be ignorant and some should be wise? No! It is not like that. Right from the creation of the microcosmos, when God made the world to function, it is like an account book of Profit and -loss.

In this, the one who has not succeeded in the test of Lord, should come to this human world to succeed. If one succeeds, he will be registered in his profit account! If he fails, he has to write the exam again, by coming to this world. Those who come like this may score more marks by their Dharma. [charity, virtuous deeds] They may get less marks also. God sends few teachers to this world in order to train and prepare human beings to score good marks in this exam. They are Gods, Goddesses, and Mystics! To realise them, we should work hard. We should try to realise them with the wisdom gained by working hard!

Does the man make an effort? No... He did not understand that work was duty... He wants to reach paradise by sitting lazily...He craves for pleasures and prosperity. Why didn't he realize that this kind of attitude will only lead to rebirths, and it will not give everlasting happiness...

How to make humans realise? That is why, though I had the power to predict the future, I worked hard to make human beings realise. I tried to make them realise that only by working hard, one can attain Yogic powers. [spiritual powers]. But people who wondered while looking at me, did not understand this, as much as my mother and sisters understood. People looked at me strangely. They asked me to give holy ash. Some of them started to worship me. I felt that this is not going to work out... It is my nature to avoid such people by stepping aside from them. So, I thought to stay away from such people. Because of our difficult situation even my brother had to work, because my elder sisters' age started to increase. Even my mother's physical strength also weakened day by day. My brother asked me "What to do next? 'I said 'I will tell you tomorrow". Next day a friend from the Panikka Nadar residency came to my house...

11. EXPERIENCES GAINED IN MUMBAI

For a person who has realised his soul, where is there any necessity for him to know anything by asking others?

Nothing... After seeing the suffering that my mother and sisters are going through in front of my eyes, is there any need for me to know from others what to do? I understood myself. Only because I understood, when my brother who was worried about our family condition asked me what could be done next, I told him that I would tell him tomorrow.

Next day, my brother realized why I told him so. A friend who came from Panikka Nadar's residency asked us whether we like to work at Ganapathy Stores in Mumbai. My brother looked at me with surprise and full of meaning. I looked at my mother. My Mother, understood the inner meaning of my look, smiled and said "Son! It is your duty to go to the forest and work. Go dear! Earn some money. Get acquainted with people. That's what you want. Don't you?" There were thousands of meanings hidden in her words. I have begged as a way-farer. I went to the forests and cut down the woods.... I went to Chennai, and saw the pathetic condition of people. Now crossing the borders, I set out to meet the people who had different language, habits and culture. My brother and I reached Ganapathy stores in Mumbai, where the stores had branches in three places- Maadhunga, Sembur, and Santacruz. My salary was 15 rupees.... Cooking for the people who were working there in the store was my job.... Painstaking and a great deal of work.

It was my divine policy to take care of my mother with the money which I earn by straining and sweating my body. So, I cooked three meals a day without getting tired. Looking at my strenuous work, my boss would call me by my former name, and would say "Lakshmanan! You are a Mallan" [The term 'Mallan' means wrestler, but here he is called 'Mallan' for his assiduous work] by patting my back. There were many such instances which revealed to others that work would pave the way for progress. I gained maturity and strength by working hard. Though I earned money, my mind was not stable. When I see the people, the duty for which I came will make my heart heavy. When I was doing my worldly duties, the duty of my birth would drive me. Man speaks different kinds of languages. He eats different kinds of food. But my mind would get disturbed while thinking about people's character which is spoiled and as bad as it is everywhere. But the sense of duty that has to be fulfilled by a son to his mother compelled me to stay back in Mumbai for one year....

Then it is the path of destiny! "Go! Go! What is there in Mumbai? What is there in Chennai? In all places, people are casted in the same mould. They want to make progress without working.... They cheat others for their livelihood. They crave to see the birth place... They want to slur and totter, by consuming alcohol. In this attitude, everyone belongs to the same caste and everyone speaks the same language. I have understood this ... Then, what is there to do here? ... Go". My soul started to reiterate to go back. That's all! I completed my disguise life, and came back to my native place Ammanpuram. As I entered my home town, my eyes first happened to see Pappathiammal, the one who showered great affection on me like my mother though she did not give me birth. Pappathiammal was like Annalakshmi [Goddess of Food, grains] of Ammanpuram. She was the wife of Subbaiah Pillai who was running a coffee shop in our village.

Pappathiammal was a very generous and compassionate mother who had the power to understand whether a person is hungry or not by merely looking at his face. She was like one of our family members who supported our family and also shared our happiness and grief with a fellow- feeling! She saw me.... I saw her. She asked me immediately, "Son! You look so tired. Did you eat or not?" My half stomach was filled with her kind words. Then she continued, "Come. Have some food and then go. My stomach was filled by her courtesy! I said, "Mother! I will come in the evening... I will bring my begging bowl. Then you give me food!" and started to walk towards my home. I was amazed by the view which I happened to see... Because, the look of our house was completely transformed! Yes. The torn roof and the broken floor of my house was transformed into a tiled house and shiny cement floor. Then only I understood what my mother had done with the 30 rupees that we sent to her every month from Mumbai! My mother made me realise that- Woman is God, and Woman is born to do creative things!

By admiring the changed view of my house at fifty feet, I reached the door of my house and called my mother.

The door opened... My mother saw me ... But Mother was not awe-struck after seeing me suddenly. She looked at me casually, as if I had been with her until ten minutes before. She said "What? Mysterious one! Have you come? Finally, have you remembered your duty again?" saying so she gave me a bowl of water! The water was clean and pure like the immaculate heart of my mother! After drinking that bowl of water, I saw a girl standing near my mother! Do you know who she was? She was the one who came to remove the weeds in the field of human life... She was the one who has been sent by God to remove the weeds in each and every human being. Her story- her experiences- the sufferings which she underwent, and the suffering which she is undergoing till now, will reveal the greatness and divinity of woman!

12. MARRIAGE

Just as some foolish sheeps dare to topple the Himalayas by dashing against it, which stands there unshakable for thousands of years, in the same way, some ignoramuses dream of pulling down Yaghava. They spread lies and jealousy and try to push him into the abyss. But Yaghava has transcended many eras. He is the one who has understood about life for five thousand years. Although he has the ability to shift his soul from one body to another, he does not think of making money by showing it as a trick! He understands the fact that the soul can only be strengthened by doing the duty of labour. So, the tricks of those obtuse people will not affect Yaghava! Nothing will happen to Yaghava except the sheep that think they can topple the Himalayas will lose their horns. It was a recent conspiracy by the cross-grained mentality of some crooks which prompted this statement. But conspiracies like this happen at every stage of my life! When I returned to Ammanpuram from Mumbai, the appearance of my house changed, but the condition of my house did not change! The home fire will burn and the pot will boil only if we toil every day. In the previous days, it was customary for my two sisters to accompany my mother to cut weeds and thorns. Now they are all married and living in their mother-in-law's house. Mother's health was not like before! What then? My responsibility was increased! I was working tirelessly by running hither and thither! Besides cutting firewood and hunting, I was doing the paddy selling business also! But I didn't get a proper return which was due. Because people whose eyes sighted one thing, mind was haunting one thing, mouth spoke one thing, whose words and deeds were unrelated to each other were eating the fruit of my labour! Despite this state of life, so many fathers who have a daughter started coming to my house and they proceeded with marriage talks as they preferred me as their son-in-law! Although life was not prosperous, I bore the title 'Mallan' [Mallan is a Tamil word which means a wrestler, but here he is called as Mallan because of his physical - might, diligent work, enormous strength] because I was physically very strong. So, the parents of the girls started to come home with an expectation that I would work hard and somehow protect, care and support the lady I marry. Since my elder brother and I are twins, our mother was looking for girls for marriage to both of us at the same time. My brother Ramachandran was running a vegetable shop in Mumbai at that time. My brother also came to my home- town. He got a suitable bride. So, I persuaded my mother that I would get married in a few days and asked her to conduct my brother's wedding first. My brother's wedding took place with my mother's consent. But my mother did not leave me. She wanted me to get married soon. So, she was earnestly looking for a girl for my marriage. So, I agreed to get married. But I did not accept one of my mother's wishes - that is... ' Exorbitant demand of dowry. Expecting the girl to come with jewellery and a lot of money.

Expecting inordinate dowry from a woman's house is a disgrace which will degrade not only my self-respect and dignity, but also antagonistic to a great extent to my duty in this world for which I have come! I came to fulfil the duty as per God's will. I should not be fascinated by gold like the other human beings of this world. My daughter Lakshmi recently read and narrated a story. You could understand it even better If I say that story. Mahalakshmi [Goddess of wealth] decides to get married. On hearing this, millions of people and Indran's group [Indra is the head of gods in heaven according to Hindu religion] wanted to marry Mahalakshmi. Then Mahalakshmi imposed a condition. The condition is that she will marry the one who does not like her! Even the wealthy Indra's crowd could not even pretend to neglect Mahalakshmi. Finally, Mahalakshmi goes to the ocean of milk [According to Hindu Mythology Lord Vishnu, the protector, dwells in the ocean of milk,]. Thirumal [Tamil name of Lord Vishnu] lives there! He didn't even see her when she stood in front of him. Mahalakshmi was surprised and asked him if he had any wishes and Thirumal asked 'Who are you? On hearing this Mahalakshmi laughed. She replied that 'I am Mahalakshmi'. He asked her again 'So what?'. Is it my job to know you? I have a lot of work in the world' said Thirumal, and then he went back to meditation! Immediately, Mahalakshmi put the garland around his neck and sat next to him.

If you follow the philosophy of the story without going into the myths of this story, if you are not fascinated by gold and objects, then it is a great honour for you. The godly incarnations [Avatars] are not enchanted by anything! As this fact was deeply ingrained in me, I told my mother firmly that I will never marry by taking jewellery and objects as dowry. This was the only time where I rejected my mother's words.

Mother asked me 'Whom do you like to marry?'. I told her 'I will marry father's niece Pushpammal. For that my mother said 'You refused money. At least the bride has to be good looking'. I replied 'The java plum [black plum, a kind of Indian blueberry] is black in colour. Does it not taste good? It is good for health also'. Mother agreed. I married my wife who lived in MelaPudhukudi.

To this day, I have no idea what she brought. He who is physically mighty, will not lie down. He will run, walk, and work hard. I worked hard by understanding the philosophy that 'Work is wisdom.' I lived by painstaking work every day. But there was no prosperity in life. He [Here Yaghava mentions about Lord Rama who went to live in forest by obeying parents according to Hindu mythology] is said to have gone to the forest and told the world the philosophy that mother and father are great souls and everyone should obey parents. Like that, I worked hard. Work is spiritual. The difficulties followed me just to show that I should not follow the by-path deviating from the right one to overcome the difficulties! As I was very well aware of this fact, I was not disturbed by the suffering.

A drop of water causes the creation of a huge body. A wisp of air keeps that body breathing alive. A spark of fire burns it down and reduces it into ashes. Since I perceive the inner and true perspective of man's enigmatic life, the joys and sorrows happening around me do not bother my soul. Yet such intricacies in my life do cause me concern. Of them, the sadness of not being blessed with a child is one!

13. STORY OF HEIR

Not living a holy married life is akin to living in a graveyard. Married life is the only field which enables us to understand between good and bad, joy and sorrows of life. That's why I got married. I convinced myself with a feeling that marriage is one of the worldly duties which has to be fulfilled. However, my mother was very anxious to see her grandchildren. But she never behaved like a cruel mother-in-law and never hurt her daughter-in-law's feelings. For eleven years, she was telling me through her sight without words. Although my wife understood her mother-in-law's wish, she never opened her mouth, never said a word, never lamented, and she never shed a tear.

This was due to the social condition that prevailed on those days. Women do not have the habit of asking their husbands about the necessities of married life! That too is a reason. Another reason, family hardships which we were undergoing. Struggling to get through everyday life was not so easy. To earn, how much I had to get drenched with sweat by doing exhausting work? My wife would bring me a bowl of water at night. When I stretch out my hands to pick it up, there would be a lot of blood clots on my hands. Because for the whole day I would cut the firewood, climb the trees and carry the paddy bags to dry. Looking at my rash covered hands with blotches, my wife would shed tears and that tear would fall on my hands.

Life was moving by doing back-breaking work and my mind was hoping to get a better life. I decided it would not be good to stay in Ammanpuram any longer by becoming frustrated with the setback. I left for Chennai to become a trader. As my wife was longing for a salvation from hardships and adversity, never a single thought of not having a child ever disturbed her mind. Since then, 11 years have passed. I once went to Ammanpuram from Chennai. Then, my mother who had not expressed her feelings for eleven years, expressed her wish and concern a little harder. That's when my soul also realized deeply about my mother's desire. But without showing it, I said 'God will give... Does God who makes fruit rot, make the seed rot? He will never forsake us. Similarly, our family will not be left without the seed of heirship... He will give. The seed will sprout'. I consoled her and also assured that the heir would come. But my mother went to the next step and said, 'It seems she can never bear a child. Why don't you get married again? The family must thrive, my son! 'I was shocked when I heard these words from my mother. Even if opportunity always prevails to get a woman for a wife, the truly human-hearted man will only reject it. I have been sent by God to this world to inspire the virtuous people to lead a holy life and to attain the upper world as a holy person. Is it necessary for such a person to go in for another marriage just for the sake of having a child? Is it feasible? Though I refute my mother's opinion in heart of hearts, how can I go against the wish of my mother, whom I considered as God, and whose place in this world cannot be replaced by others.

I said' Mother, I am going near to Lord like a poor man climbing the stairs of a munificent benefactor's house with great hope. God's grace is always there with me. You always used to say to me that 'If you tie three stones in the pond, and command the fishes to stand within it, the fishes obey your order. My son! You are a mysterious incarnation of God'. Now, 'Will you not believe such a son? Keep faith in my words. Mother! I will have a child!' I gave some solace to her by my words that the heir would come and denied her request! In the evening I went to Ammanpuram mutt, and sat down. Memories of my past life were running through my mind and it struck me like lightning.

When many women are available, knowledge loses the sobriety of judgement while choosing a good woman. Driven by overweening pride, mind hanker after everything with an arrogance of getting anything. To avoid this, I cast away all the girls who desired to marry me and I married my father's niece who had an understanding about hardships of life and who was longing for a good soul to support her with love and affection. I was married only to understand the joys and sorrows of this world. Not to give birth to a child. Can one who has attained the maturity of seeing all living beings as his and as himself think about an heir for him? No! can't! and shouldn't! At the same time, I got married because only by performing the duty of married life, one can understand the joys and sorrows of life. Just like getting married, it was also my duty to give happiness to my mother who was wistful to see her grandchildren and whom I can't regain if I lose her. A sound echoed in my heart and said 'Give! Think about giving! 'Something inside me says to fulfil my mother's wish and think about it. I returned home. As my wife knows about my power of transformation from one body to another, usually by looking at my face, my wife can understand whether my soul is inside my body or somewhere else. If my wife finds out that my soul has gone somewhere else, she will leave a water bowl in my room and will go outside. That day, she looked at me sharply when she came to my room. Realizing that my soul is inside my body, she hesitated to go out and stayed in the room. I asked her 'What happened? Why are you looking so dull?'. She suddenly said, 'Do as your mother says, marry another woman'. I understood that she would have heard the conversation between me and my mother. Even though I asked her.' 'Did mother say anything?'

My wife replied 'She said nothing. I heard what she said and how you refused her. But don't deny her. Whatever the aunt says will be exactly right. I have no regrets. You marry another woman', and by saying so her voice magnanimously expressed the exalted feeling of love very casually and very affectionately. I understood the truth that a wife becomes like a footwear for her husband's feet, if she comes to know that he is concerned about her well-being.

Also, is it humane for a husband to trample a wife under his feet who has become like footwear and has fallen at her husband's feet? Will I, a Nemophilist, who has been sent by God to reveal the glory and magnificence to mankind, do so? I wiped her eyes which were filled with tears. As I wiped her eyes with the towel, I heard the voice of a baby crying. Smiling at that, I asked my wife, 'Can you hear the sound of a baby crying.?' She said 'No'. But I was continuously hearing the crying sound of a baby.

14. COMING TO DWELL IN CHENNAI

As I know that sound is the source for the movement of this universe, I could precisely hear the crying sound of a baby. Initially, people would not believe my words when I told them about what would happen in the world. I said that Kalaizhnar would come to power, when the circumstances were not favourable to Kalaizhnar. I said this, when there was a situation where anyone could hardly believe that he would come to power. Some people laughed at my statement... Some suspected me by saying 'There is no sign of it'. But it happened in 1996 and I said that 'A farmer will rule the country'. At that time, even Deve Gowda would not have thought that he would become Prime Minister. But it happened. Many wonder how Yaghava says all these... It is neither a magic trick nor astrology!

It is the destiny written in the womb itself... God tells those accounts of destiny to this Yaghava and I am saying it by means of sound, acoustically to this world. This Yaghava is neither God nor deity. As always, I am a Nemophilist, A Hunter, and A Way-farer! Working only is the duty of a human being.... Everything happens according to the written destiny. I Yaghava, is telling this to the world as God's principle...

In the family, the controversy that arose between me and my mother over the issue of the child came to an end. When my wife asked me to marry another woman as a second wife, I refused her and wiped her tears, and I heard the crying sound of a baby. That is what I told you last week... Isn't it? What was it? Though I was aware of the fact that I will have a child only after 12 years of marriage, my mother's pining for a grandchild, and all the following events related to my denial of second marriage took place in my life, to give precedence to the principle that a man can have one spouse, not many women...

Do you know why I came to Ammanpuram from Chennai? Because, I realised that my mother's duty is going to end in this world! I came to see my mother, as it was Lord's will that when my mother's sense organs were active itself, her son should meet his mother and by extricating her from all her worries, should give peace to her soul.

I came to see my mother in order to fulfil the desire of the Lord who reigns the entire universe above from the sky and also managing and settling all the accounts of human beings...

I saw her and liberated her from all her griefs and then I returned to Chennai. Later, I wrote her a letter and informed her that she is going to have a grandchild soon.... When I posted that letter, I met Iyer [one who is a brahmin, who belongs to a brahmin caste] near Tambaram post office. He asked me "What rice merchant? What is the matter? I replied 'I need help! I will receive a telegram from my hometown. Whatever may be the time, please deliver that telegram to my house in Medavakkam. Saying so, I gave him 5 rupees and returned home.

Because I was aware that my mother's soul is going to leave this world in a few days. At that time, there was no post office in Medavakkam. That is why I gave Tambaram Iyer's address to contact me in my home town. The Medavakkam area where I am residing now in Chennai is the ninth place for me to dwell in... Before that, I was in different places, and faced many difficulties. My wife is going to tell more about it. Hear it.”....”. ‘It was a very hard time when we got married! His calloused hands would be covered with blood clots and rashes. He would go to cut firewoods at dawn, and would return home at dusk...

But there would be no trace of melancholy on his face. Whenever I was in a pensive mood, he used to say, 'Why do you worry? You are going to live in a big palace and you are going to live happily!' I didn't believe that. But today everything is happening as he said....

Now only, I have understood...and also regret that, I should have understood at that time itself when I was newly married to him, what he foretold about the incidents that were going to happen. One day he told me to remove my holy chord [sacred symbol of marriage in Indian culture] But I didn't remove my holy chord...On the third day, someone snapped my holy chord and ran away. Another time, a boy yelped due to stomach pain. Seeing him, howling in pain, he gave him a bowl of water and told him to drink it. Within the next half-hour his stomach stopped to ache...

Though many incidents happened like this, he never used his divine powers as an occupation for his livelihood like some wizards. He worked hard... There was loss in the paddy selling business too. It was too difficult even to get food... I went to my brother's house to borrow five rupees and waited for the whole day. But my brother sent me back without giving a penny. When he found this out, this incident initiated a family feud... Also he said, 'We can beg from others, but not from relatives. Let us go to Chennai'... I said 'I will come with you, wherever you call me'... Thus we decided to leave our hometown and left for Chennai...

The first place we settled in Chennai was Poonamallee. Then he set up a shop in Vengal. Business was going well. But he said 'This is not our place'. I was upset to hear him say that. But I remained calm, as I knew that it would happen if he said so. The business was growing day by day. I thought we would stay here permanently... But the problem came in a different way. There was an old lady near our house and that old lady had a granddaughter. Both of her legs were paralyzed. It would be so sad to see her pitiable condition.

I said, 'If you give her water she will be cured. Why don't you heal her? Then he asked me to bring that girl, and I brought that girl. Three days later the girl started to walk. That's it - the crowd started to gather. He had to meet hundreds of people every day. Then one day he called me and said "It is not our place. I don't want to do business like a sorcerer... I can't trade my divine powers! If I start to cure the diseases of the people gathering here, then I will not be able to work. We can't live without doing work. So, let us leave and go to another place..." One night, when the whole city was asleep, he left that place.

In all the places like Padur, Pattalam, Pammal, Perumbakkam, as he alleviated people's sufferings, we had to move from one place to another.' "Did you hear what she said? That's the matter!... One should use the divine powers for the welfare of the people. Should never sell it for money... No need to wear a saffron dress. Should never expect anything in return.

Should help the deserving people with pure heart..That is spirituality. As my life journey was going on like this, one day at eight o'clock in the night, as I expected, Tambaram Iyer knocked on the door of my house.

15. DEATH OF MOTHER

One day around eight o'clock in the night, someone knocked on the door of my house. I came out asking 'Who is it?' and opened the door. Tambaram Iyer was standing there. I understood what would be the matter as I saw him. He said 'Oh! Rice Merchant! As you said, a telegram has come with a message that your mother passed away!' I thanked him for coming without considering the difficulties, and I asked for another help. I asked him to book two tickets for Thirunelveli bus at night.

He took the money which I gave to him and left. I asked my wife to get ready to leave for our home town... We immediately left for Thirunelveli at night... Even though she was pregnant, she came with me without minding her physical difficulties, as she was also sad about the demise of her mother-in-law. While travelling in the bus, my past life was running in my mind and eyes. While thinking about the soul of my mother that is resting in peace, who accepted the responsibility of both mother and father and raised four children since my father's demise at my young age, tears welled up in my eyes with a human nature beyond wisdom.

There is only one relationship in the world which makes a man think beyond wisdom. That is mother only. On realizing this fact many changes happened physically and mentally... When I saw my mother for the last time and left for Chennai, my daughter Lakshmi used to say that what I said to my mother, and my mother's reply to me closely matches with Pattinathar's [Pattinathar is a mystic, divine poet of Tamilnadu] life! I said 'Mother! I leave now and I will come back ' . " My mother replied 'Oh! Mysterious incarnation! Will a recluse who begs by wearing a waist cloth and goes to the forest ever come back?' With a feeling mingled with thoughtfulness and a smile, I replied 'I am going'. For that my mother said "How can you go anywhere without paying back the debt of my motherhood?" I said, "Mother, I have fulfilled my duty." The last duty of a son is to perform the funeral rites of parents.' replied my mother.

'If so, does that mean I have to say 'I will return soon '?" I asked my mother. "If you say 'I'm going' a mother will worry by thinking when her son will come back to her... Instead of saying 'I am going, ' if you say 'I'll return soon', then the mother will hope that her son will definitely return... So say ' I will return soon'." All her wise conversations crossed my mind... I went to my home town just in time to finish the last rites of my mother as per her wish! On the day we left for chennai after completing all the rituals, and the last rites of setting fire to the body of my mother, Papathiyammal, the wife of the owner of Subbaiah Pillai Coffee Club, Anna lakshmi [Goddess of food] of our village called me and said 'Son! Please Come here!'. As I went, she handed me a small bag of cloth. When I asked her 'What is it?' She said 'Open and see!' As I opened the bag, my mother's gold ring was there.' Your mother told me to give this to you!' She said this with distressed eyes...'What a genuine mother! Even after the death of the person who gave the ring, are you giving it back to me honestly, without taking it for yourself?'...

Only because of such righteous women like you, the punishment given by the Sovereign-Supreme for the sins committed in the world is less". Thus by thinking proudly about Pappathiammal, we left Ammanpuram. My mother's property should be inherited by my wife. Isn't it? So I put my mother's ring on my wife's finger. With this, my relationship with my home town ended!

When I migrated to Medavakkam, many people scared me and tried to stop me and said that there were ghosts, vampires and enchantresses in this place... Some said there was no water facility here. But how do they know that I have come to exorcise all the demons and thereby to make this place holy to be inhabited by Gods? I listened to their words, but I bought the land in Medavakkam. The situation was gradually changing. Even then, many scared us that a pregnant woman should not stay here. I didn't worry! I assured those who advised me with concern that Vasiya would take care and my wife would give birth to a baby boy.

Many people mocked me by saying "Are you an astrologer?". I would reply immediately that, ' I am not an astrologer. In vedhas, it is written that while sleeping, if a pregnant woman turns to the right she will give birth to a baby boy, and if she turns to the left she will give birth to a baby girl. I am telling this by keeping those words of vedhas in my mind!' Everything happened as I said. As if my mother herself was born as male, my two sons, Arun and Saran, are living as Yaghava's kinship of the world.

16. LIVING APART FROM WIFE

Now- a -days, we are able to see a lot of fake siddhas who pretend to be spiritualists, and they are exceedingly greedy for material gain and they plunder the money by intimidating people. But a true spiritualist is the one who gives hope, teaches virtues, and guides people in a righteous way...

The number of such incarnations have decreased now. The period has come to such a stage, people will believe you only if you disguise yourself! But I didn't become like them. Why should I? I am doing my duty by working hard... By worshipping my parents, I am worshipping God. By God's grace, I am prognosticating the future events to those who seek refuge in me. Contrary to the claims of the disguised fake monks that a saint should not marry...I led a holy married life by breaching that rule... Like this when I was performing the duty of the upper world as well as the duty for which I came to this human world, one day on 03.01.1983 At 7 pm, the purpose of my mysterious incarnation came to an end and I rested.

Surrounded by relatives, friends, children, and my panic stricken wife, my mind lay without any movements. Then, I opened my eyes and told my wife " By yesterday, my duties were over... Henceforth I'm not your husband. It is the duty of my incarnation to transform my soul from one body to another, and the duties of my incarnation are different. You know that. Why do you cry in spite of knowing the truth? Hereafter you have to live alone". Then her tears were controlled and she stopped crying. She changed her appearance. She went back to her place.16 years have passed. Her life is separate. My life and my duties are different. I am awake when the whole world is asleep. I sleep when the whole world is awake. Like this, I do my duty for which I came to this world.

Without any lust for money, with my divine powers which I have by God's grace, I predict the difficulties and sufferings that are going to happen in the future and I am telling it to the world. I have no intention of scaring people by such prophecies..I make people alert about the upcoming sufferings and ask them to be wary. To those who worry about the future, I convince them by saying, 'Don't be afraid. All the suffering will come to an end and Kalaizhmar is going to come to power'. Gold will be available abundantly. Grains will not be available. People are watching everything that is happening. I told people if undeserving persons come to power how would they behave and what would they do. By preferring a fight in the Kargil they want to ride in the car with the flag.

That is not possible. A lot of disasters will occur during the election period. There will be dead bodies on all the streets. I am not saying this to intimidate the public. I say this to help people to understand the situation and be safe... Similarly, when I came to Medavakkam, people scared me and said that this place was rocky and dry. They said there was no water facility here. But when I dug the ground for water, within 23 feet, water gushed out. From then on, people started to settle in the Medavakkam area. People who came to me from many parts of Chennai, those who were benefited by me, those who recovered from diseases by me and those who saw everything happening as I predicted, did not let me stay here too... People were coming continuously here also... Hearing and seeing these, a rich man approached me in the form of a devotee to make money by using my divine powers. Though I could understand that he will dare to commit any kind of sins and revenge, and also will not repent about it, I allowed him as I wanted to reveal his true identity before the world...

He acted very well. Even though I understood it, I enjoyed it. He told me that I was everything to him. I replied that it was good. He said "People are yearning for your grace, so you have to construct an ashram, [Indian monastery] only then people will respect you". I said ' Am I a fake monk to wear saffron dress and to live in an Ashram and thereby gain respect from the people?" He said, "Only then people will believe you". I said," What am I going to get by making people believe me?". He said " I will take care of everything and I will give you fifty thousand rupees every day'. I said " I am a Nemophilist, a Hunter, a Way-farer! Why do I need money?". He said 'Even God will be honoured, only if there is wealth'. On hearing this, my facial expression changed.

17. GOD DOESN'T NEED A MEDIATOR

Those who prioritize money will try to make money even in the name of God. This is the beginning of the suffering of the world... As a person who knows about these facts, I had to play some divine plays to make the people understand this fact.

One of the divine plays was to make people realize that wisdom should not be sold for money, and God doesn't need a mediator... By the grace and command of God, having the power to realize what is going to happen in the future, to comfort those who suffers, and make them to realise that there is always a relief for distressed good souls, and to give relief to those who approach me with their troubles and sufferings, are the duties of my birth. I am doing my duty in my own way. One day, a person who was heavily burdened by debts and with a fear about his in-secured, bleak future came to me. I gave him one rupee and told him 'Don't worry! you will repay all your debts and will live a very rich life soon. Work hard'. The one who was standing on the ground looked at the mountain and was astounded that he could never reach the top of the mountain... Suddenly one day, if that person reaches that top of the mountain, what will he think? If he is a good man, he will regard it as the grace of God and if he is a hypocrite he will not look behind the path in which he has traversed.

He will do anything to retain the place which he has gained. He also thought in the same way... He was burdened with debts and miseries, and without any hope, scared about his dismal future. As he owned the car, bungalow, wealth, prosperity and everything, he started to think money is God. If an unqualified person comes to a high position, what will he do? Just like that, he also acted in the same way... He became avaricious, and vicious thoughts occupied his mind. As a result, he wanted to monetize God. The sufferings of the people who came to me were relieved. Also, whatever I said happened. After seeing all these, some mediators started calculating to make money by making use of my divine powers...

They thought that as I am uneducated, I am not giving importance to money, also I don't know how to monetize my divine powers. So, some intermediaries came to me and tried to merchandise my divine powers... They said "We will give you a substantial amount every month. You construct an ashram and give blessings to the people and foretell the future. Rest of it, we will take care"... After hearing this, these words of greed infuriated my soul." Are you trying to monetize God? Giving peace to those who suffer, without expecting anything in return and giving solace to the people who are distressed is Spirituality.... The one who accomplishes this is Siddha [mystic]...

I am not the one to do magic tricks and pull out Shiva linga [idol form of Lord Shiva] from the mouth and thereby to live and eat at the cost of those who come to me for their peace of mind. I am not that kind of a person. I am always a Nemophilist, a Hunter, and a Way-farer... I have come here for a few reasons. and, I am doing that. To sustain this human body also, hard work is the only true way to lead a worldly life.... Don't weigh me on the scale of money. Saying so, I closed the door of my house. Now the doors of my house are always closed to such mediators who want to earn money by becoming God's broker. This uneducated Yaghava will never open the door of his heart to those who think that education is only to earn money! When there was no education, man was good. Being educated, instead of cultivating good manners, he cultivates desires.

The Sovereign-Supreme could not tolerate this and appealed to the Lord. Lord pays heed to the command of God...God nods his head affirmatively...By the command of God, Earth splits. Thunder, and lightning forms in the sky and climate changes. Death, conflicts, and everywhere dead bodies on the streets... Thus, the world is becoming like a graveyard. However, man does not realize his duties and responsibilities. He has no interest in hard work... He always schemes to deceive others and ditch others with his ignoble thoughts...This negativity is increasing day by day. You are going to see this in the upcoming election. There will be many conflicts and riots. However, amid such troubles, the country will not be affected by the problems and will develop... A woman will accomplish this. Do you know why I say this? Not to intimidate people.

Just only to remind you about your duties. To make you realize that affection is devotion. God does not need any mediator... Those who have such mediators are not divine... I am telling you to make you realise this. Make use of your knowledge in such a way not to be cheated by others. It is a great victory if you are cautious, and don't get cheated by others.! Worship your father and mother. You will get peace of mind! Don't try to easily achieve anything. Achieve by struggling hard. - The thought of spoiling others will go off! Education and Rationalism are to realise what is good and what is bad. Bookish knowledge alone is not education! This is what I am telling to the people who ever come to me. Whoever listens to this come up in life, and those who don't listen, they get spoiled. If I explain a small incident, you can understand it very well! "One day, I received a call from Poes Garden. I received the call and asked 'Who is it?' He said 'Swami! I am Rajini speaking'... I said ' You are thinking of quitting work. Not possible. It is not possible for you'. He said 'What are you, saying?' I said 'Come and meet me! I will tell you!'

18. RAJINI IS AN INCARNATION

Last year in the month of February, at evening, around 6 o'clock an Ambassador car entered my house.

My house boy brought a visiting card given to him by someone in the car and gave it to me. He read the name on the card and said "A. V. Ramanan". I told them to come. A tall man with a beard in white dress, stepped out from the car. I saw him. That's Rajini! I said "Come! You have arrived just in time...Are you not able to bear the troubles? Are you tired of searching for what you have lost? Do not worry. Everything will be alright. What you have lost will come back to you"...He was surprised to learn that I understood why he came! He looked at me in great awe and as if moved by a tender feeling."

First I gave him a bowl of water to drink and thus by relaxing him, I looked at him calmly. In his sight and in his appearance, neither there was any pride in his fame, nor was there any feeling of a great star.' Modesty and serenity comes naturally to the one who has deep spiritual clarity'. This is what I saw in Rajini. He himself started the conversation and said" Swami! There is an emptiness and a longing in my mind as if I have lost something. and it torments my mind"... I said " I am not Swami. [A spiritualist is called 'Swami' with reverence in India] I am a Way-farer... You are an Incarnation. Do not call me " Swami". He said "Okay". I asked him "From your birth, the sound inside you which is constantly saying again and again that "You are the Sovereign-Supreme" has stopped for the last four years. Isn't it?" He was surprised and said' Yes'. I could read his sight which asked me astonishingly, "How do you know this?". I looked at him, smiled and said "Is it any wonder for one incarnation to realize another incarnation? Four years ago, six wizards from Kerala [Namboodiri] deceived you and they destroyed the power of your incarnation. Don't worry. I'll take care. The game of that demon's team will get over". Saying so, I gave him water three times...

He washed his face and drank water for another three times... He came to my sepulchre and sat calmly and went off. There was no messenger for our meeting. I didn't call him. He did not inform me that he would come to meet me. Something... The destiny written in the womb made us meet with each other... Then, a couple of times, he called me on the phone. As I received his call, he talked about the change that had taken place within him and the peace of mind that he gained as a result of it... That's all. Five months later, he came again in July. This time, there was a clarity on Rajini's face and happiness in his mind. I said "I have destroyed that witchcraft. How are you now?". He said that "I can hear that sound inside me. In the shooting spot of "Arunachalam" [name of a Tamil movie] if I say anything, it will sound something different and opposite to what I said. Now it has stopped!"

He spoke like a Vedhanthi! [one who has knowledge about vedhas] He said "My mind has come to its original state. and the constant sound which I used to hear is again reverberating. I could realize it immaculately in my mind." I said "No need to worry. Go and do your work." He answered "I don't have any work now. I want to go somewhere else and I want to be in solitude". I said "How can you go anywhere without finishing your work? People expect a lot from you. You can't go anywhere without fulfilling their expectations. Go and start a new film. It will become a super hit all over the world. The country is going to see another dimension of yours. Go and do it without delay". He started the film "Padaiappa." [name of a Tamil movie] How did the film become a super hit? The whole world knows how it became a super hit movie all over the world. One day, at night 10 pm, he called me on the phone and said that the film was a hit all over the world. He is a man of gratitude... When I asked him to start a film, I gave him a Chiranjeevi herb [a divine herb] and patted his back gently, and asked him "What do you want? You can ask me." He answered me "To serve the people I need a good heart, and also the strength and longevity to accomplish it". That's what I liked about Rajinikanth.

I really liked that purity of mind. I said "Your life will change from your 49th year. You are going to do a lot for people. The world will come after you. You will guide them. You will destroy evil and protect the good... Kalki incarnation will not come on a white horse. Kalki incarnation has come in your form by wearing a white dress and by having a white beard.... So, don't be with politicians... Your path is separate. Follow that path... You will achieve a lot... You are the one who is going to change the politics of Tamil Nadu". By hearing my words, his eyes softened with tears, and with profound gratitude, he joined his hands together and departed with new excitement. At his young age, he would tell his friends that he was the incarnation of Krishna and that one day he would become great and famous, and the whole world would talk about him. The one who migrates from country to country, and struggles in poverty, by realizing himself also realises about what happens around him, is a saint— an incarnation —and he will be the one to tell the truth to the world.

While looking at Rajini's past life and the sound which reverberated constantly inside him, I would feel that it is that sound which brought him to me. As his intuition and my intuition match with each other, I tell you, that he will change the politics of Tamil Nadu in 2002!

19. ANYTHING CAN BE ACHIEVED IF YOUR HEART IS OPEN

Global cataclysm is going on...Thousands of deaths are occurring by rubble, wind, rain and fire all around the world. So many deaths due to the earthquake in Turkey, and the train collision in Bengal..... We can grieve over it, but cannot stop it.! All these are happening due to the play of ghosts. Why is this happening? The man is playing all the evil games! God - the Lord, and the Sovereign-Supreme could not tolerate this! All these horrifying incidents are a sign of their exasperation!

Why does man not realise this? Because he has become more rational. He believes that he can question and only he can understand everything. He is not realising that it is wrong. "Man's rationalism is like a desert! Only the heart is the basis for an eternal peaceful life" This is the calculation of the Sovereign-Supreme! In modern times, man has forgotten the language of the heart - he has forgotten the sound! Rationalism can invent an object. Rationalism cannot understand the state of living beings! If you ask rationalism about life, affection, peace, happiness, and bliss, it does not know about it and it cannot give you an answer. Rationalism knows only to fight and create conflicts with each other. Only the heart knows how to connect and relate. Only the heart knows to shower kindness... Man to man lived harmoniously when he did not go to school... At that time, he was happy if you compare it with now-a-days... Why? He studied by heart and lived according to his conscience. The ruler went to the forests in search of mystics and sought their guidance and based on ethics, they ruled the country.

All these have spoiled, and it is the reason for this degeneration, my son! It will not stop now.... 75 percent of the people will be destroyed and 25 percent of the people will be saved. Do you think I speak harshly? There is no other way for me to foretell about good incidents. Yet, those who are divine will protect the goodness of this world. Before that, man should learn first to understand and respect the mind and its sound. But what is he doing? I say Sound is God... I say Rajini the Kalki incarnation.... Immediately the rationalist says that I am a psychopath.... When you are not able to realise your inner self, how are you going to realise my sound with your rationalism? If I ask this question man initiates futile arguments... When I tell him that I am dead, he laughs.... What does the vedhas say? It says that death is the Guru [spiritual teacher]. It is death which opens the door of wisdom. It is blessed for those who are divine. The body will disappear. But the soul will not disappear. It is only death which transforms your soul completely... I have experienced 53 deaths so far. In every death, my mind — and its sound — has been cleaned and purified. The flower blooms and fades.... As it fades, again it blooms and spreads fragrance.

But when a man dies there is no fragrance and there is no possibility of blooming again! The philosophy of death is to change from one state to another and purify the soul! Saints, Siddhas, Gods change... but their hearts are same and one. Philosophy is also the same... and their lives are limitlessly bountiful in kindness! That will never change... When it is told to the world and when it does not reach the rational knowledge of people, they call that person psychopath. The messengers sent by God to guide this world are not psychopaths! Only those who do not understand them are psychopaths! How can a person who has no heart be mentally healthy? How can a person who is mentally ill be a good human being? How can the world be peaceful and kind without good human beings? No! This world cannot remain peaceful, my son!..... That is the root cause of the current situation! And that root cause should be eradicated...

For that you need to open your heart. If it opens, the whole paradise will be yours. For that, first learn to believe, but don't believe the saffron dressed preachers, but believe your fellow man who is before your eyes...! Be kind to him. If there is kindness, deceit will die. When the deceit dies, violence will also die. Above all, you believe in yourself and it is more important. If you believe in yourself, the urge to spoil others will disappear. When it disappears, you will think about working hard... If you start working, the disability of the world will disappear. Prosperity will come. This is the subtlety of life. Just as the universe revolves around the axis even before the development of science, like that, it is good for the country if man stands within the brim of trust and hard work! The sky will be within your reach.! Earth will bear you with pride and patience! The Siddhas and Gods who were estranged from you because of your human atrocities will come back to you and they will sit with you as one among you!

Through sound, God will unite the Lord and the Sovereign-Supreme, and also human beings beared by Sovereign- Supreme. [Mother Earth] Then the fragrance of flowers will permeate everywhere in the earth. The birds will talk to you. Even the forest will turn into palaces of human beings.! For that, First God has destroyed ninety lakh sorcerers. By whom? Does your rationalism have the ability to discover it? Then who is going to weed out these miseries? Is your science going to weed this misery? No! It can't! Then who?

20. THE WORLD WILL NEVER GET DESTROYED

If we turn on the TV or flip the newspaper, we come across some bad news like death, shootings, earthquakes, fire, rain, and about the catastrophes happening all over the world. Our mind is anguished by such news... The one who has no compassion for others is a demon. All these horrific acts are taking place because human beings have been transformed as monsters. When I say all these, you may ask, "Is this world going to doom?" You may ask for an explanation citing the example of Nostardamus's prophecy which was written hundreds of years ago.

So - many people ask me that. My reply to them is... 'Nostradamus never said that the world would get destroyed... He said that karmas [sins, evil persons] will be destroyed. And also, it is happening.' Now, the battle is going on between Karma [sins, evil persons] and Dharma [virtuous people, charity]. It was started in 1941. Now it is intensifying... This year, at 5am, morning of September (9.9.99), the afflictions of the world will become more severe., and the whole world will be ravaged by the scourge... Religious riots and caste riots will increase. Then 75 percent of the people will be punished for their sins. 25 percent of good souls will be protected. Last week, I told you that God has begun to destroy 90 lakh sorcerers. How does he destroy? You are thumping your chest with pride and saying that your knowledge and your science discovered by your rationalism have changed the entire world! The bombs and guns discovered by your rationalism are going to destroy you.

Your rational, scientific knowledge is going to destroy you. You know only about the deed of land. But, God knows about your deed of destiny. Only, if you understand this, if the learned people accept this fact, rebellion will become rare! This is what my Mystics and I are saying as we pass by... But you are not listening. The sound is not reaching your ears. You will not worship your father and mother while they are alive, and you will worship them only after their death by building a temple and by lighting a lamp... You will never accept the words of Siddhas when they are alive! When Nostradamus was alive, no one listened to him and nobody gave any importance to his words. Now, people celebrate him as a prophet after his death!

You Poisoned the person who told you to ask questions. [Yaghava mentions Socrates].... You never think to analyse anything like that, and also don't give any prominence to such wise analysis. Former Governor Chennareddy said about me that I am God... and my power should be explored. But nobody analysed his statement but mocked me... Gupta, a renowned businessman and a prominent figure in the B.J.P. [Political party] and close to Prime Minister Vajpayee, will often come to meet me. When the election was held in Delhi, he asked me "Who will win?" I said "Congress will win". He did not believe me. What happened? Congress won the election... Now hear what I say. Congress will get a majority of votes in the upcoming elections. But, Sonia Gandhi will not be the Prime Minister. A man will become prime minister. See if it happens or not.... This is not astrology..... My mind realises this from the sound of pranavam..... My soul realises it and reveals it on the basis of divine theories of the sky! Do not laugh at me by living within your limited world of knowledge!

My world is vast. You cannot measure its depth and size! With your knowledge, you can never understand the secrets of my eternal world! The subtlety of the eternal world can only be understood by the wisdom gained by worshipping water, by worshipping mother, by working hard, and by rendering good service to the people of the world. You try for it.

The number of sins you commit will diminish as you try it. The selfishness to own the land, and to own the deed of land will be destroyed. Then you will get the skill by which you can conquer the world! The number of people who think like this will increase in the future. As a result, Siddhas and Gods will come to this world and they will come close to you. They will save the good people from destruction which is taking place now... This revolution of enlightenment will take place only in India. After that, this nation will be in the responsible and prominent place of guiding wisdom to the entire world. Before that, there will be a lot of destruction. Poverty will reach the zenith. Caste-religious riots will threaten. If you want to get over from such miseries, by prostrating yourself at the feet of your father and mother, worship them.... Worship your elders. Don't worship all and sundry! That is not a redemption!

Your mother's womb is the biggest temple. What you have built are not big temples. Worship water. Give respect to the farmer and fisherman! Because, only they have the power to understand nature and the change of climate!

21.AIR, WATER, STAR- YAGHAVA

Someone who read my article has told the author that, “The article is good, but at the end Yaghava is going to say that he is the God. That is his purpose! "The statement of that person is an outcome of disbelieving my words. Of course, I am not a divinator who indulges in trance oracling. I am not a spiritualist who shows his hands and blesses. I am not a monk who pulls out shivalinga from the mouth. I am not a dancing sage to evince the world that God can be realised by dancing with women! Yaghava is not the one who propagates that all of your problems will be solved if you come to me.... I don't have any notice board before my house informing that it is 'Yaghava mutt' [monastery] This Yaghava is not the one who adorns himself with saffron dress, and not the one who sits on a tiger's skin, by holding a kamandalam [a water vessel usually made out of metal or mud]. I am working hard.... I am also living a worldly life like you.

As I pass by, I am telling you about the work that God sent me to this human world for the 54th time.... It is up to you to listen or not to listen, to believe or not to believe.... I say "Work hard". Only hard work has that power to bring victory and peace to you.. Devotion without humility is fake. I say that "Mother is God"..... I say " Dharma [Charity] is the duty of birth"... Do not wander outside in search of eminence. It is within you... The one who understands vedhas will understand this. The one who searches for vedhas in books will not understand this.... Kanchi Paramacharyar was able to realise this - That's why he said about me as "I have found the person, for whom I searched for". What do I lose if some sciolistics don't understand this? Those who don't understand this are losers. This is what the world has experienced so far..... That is why in the ancient days, the rulers went in search of Siddhas, [mystics] Devis' [Goddesses] and Munivars [Gods] and ruled in accordance with their guidance and ethical values. In those days, the world was righteous and also peace prevailed. The farmer was respected. But now, farmers are praised for one day and tormented for five years.

The farmers are maltreated... Author Murugan asked me" You are saying that farmers and fishermen belong to a high calibre.... What is the reason? I said "First, Give respect to salt. Because the only substance that grows without seed is salt. Secondly, pay homage to the grains. Because the Sovereign- Supreme [land, Mother Earth] herself bears the grains on her lap and grows it for the welfare of all living beings including human beings..... Thirdly, revere water..... If you look in that manner, the farmer produces the grains and venerates the land. He bows his head to thank the Sovereign-Supreme for giving her lap to protect him. He bows his head and thus he has that modesty. Not only that. He never stores grains inside his house. By taking for himself, also gives it to others. He is an adorable yogi! That is why Gandhiji said that the village where the farmer lives is the heart of India. But, has anyone adored the heart? Have you noticed it? No... Not only here, this is the condition that prevails all over the world. Three lakh people have died out of starvation in North Korea in the last three years alone. On television, they telecast that it is even more in Rwanda and Africa. Why is this happening? Because of the heinous sin that you commit by disrespecting the farmers. Why don't you understand this? That's why I say.

Gold will be available, but grains will not be available... Nine people will fight for a handful of rice. It will take place from 9.9.99. This condition will change only if the rulers respect and adore the hard work of the farmers. The fisherman should also be revered. Because, he is the one who has the knowledge to understand the divine theories of sky, even before the development of your science. He has the knowledge to find the directions by observing the movement of the stars.

The fortune teller and the sages lie. He who knows about the divine theories of the sky is a saint.... It is like an axle for the rotation of the world. The fisherman who understands this is a saint. Isn't it? You could not understand even this. Then how will you understand this Yaghava, who is sent by God? How are you going to understand me, who has come to imbibe the sound of Yagham, [upper world] and to prophesize today about what is going to happen tomorrow? Understand this if you want to understand. If you can understand this, it is good for you and you will survive. Otherwise you will be one among the 75% of the people who are going to perish. This is not a curse.... This is the calculation of macro cosmos. It is the decision of destiny written in the womb... If you want to save the world from this destruction, you have to change the erroneous belief that only bookish knowledge can bring wisdom.

The 25 percent of the people who will be protected from destruction, for their Dharma [virtues, charity] will change this. To be made to understand the highest wisdom that hard work is the highest education...to be made to develop this virtue - those who are duty conscious must take the initiative for it! On 17.11.94, 38 crores of years came to an end. Another 48 crores of years begin. This world will never get destroyed. Man must realise what is going to happen in this world. The duty of this Nemophilist, and a Wayfarer is to tell you about this.... Only to fulfil this duty, I am awake when you sleep, and I am hearing the sound that comes wave after wave from the eternal world. This Yaghava is doing his duty, with his three elements of Air (ya), Water (ka), Star (va).... and what I predict is in the form of sound codes....

Man has misunderstood the Tamil proverb "NEERILLA NETRI PAAZH" [In Tamil language, it means without water the forehead is barren. The Tamil word NEER [water] was misinterpreted as ash. Also, according to Yaghava's philosophy water denotes the sweat that comes on the forehead from hard work. Without that sweat, the forehead is barren] and he adorns his forehead with ashes and kumkum. Man has 23 eyes. 20 nails, two eyes to see, and an eye in the middle of the eyebrows. That eye on the forehead in the middle of the eyebrows is called wisdom eye. The forehead is the place where wisdom and vedhas settle down after gaining maturity and purity in the form of sound. A blazing fire of debate is glowing there! To soothe that fire, vedha says to apply water in the middle of the eyebrows. Why because, just to protect the wisdom eye which may lose its freshness from that blazing heat of wisdom. To prevent this, water should be applied on the forehead. So many mistakes like this need to be rectified. How is this possible...? When the mountain deforms, it becomes gold, and when it deforms it becomes diamond. Do you know what should die within a person to open the eye of wisdom?

22. SOUL IS KINDNESS

Wait, I say.....If a mountain becomes fossil, it becomes gold. If gold becomes fossil, it becomes diamond. In such wise, when something dies something else forms. When the flower fades, it dries and ripens into a fruit. Similarly, only when the ego within the man dies, the wisdom will dawn. But will this arrogance of the self, which has been inside the man, who has been bearing it for 2005 years, suddenly disappear? It will not disappear.... and it will not get destroyed easily! If it has to be eradicated, first, man has to destroy his wrong notion about rationalism. Man must abandon the notion that denying everything and hating everything is rationalism. If your rational mind works in a proper manner, it will finally find God and it will not surrender to fake spirituality! What do today's rationalists say? They say that only by killing one, the other can survive, and they say that it is the scientific truth. The lizard eats the insect; the snake eats the lizard. One eats the other like this and lives, and this is the survival of the fittest... That is the law of nature.

It is not nature's law! This is the law formulated by the devilish, uncompassionate nature of man who according to his own desire wants to destroy others for his own benefit. It is the Sovereign-Supreme's will that human beings should live in accordance with justice, charity, hard work and truth. That is why she created nature, grewed vegetables, fruits and grains upon herself and gave them to human beings. By eating these, you are not doing the work for which the Sovereign-Supreme has given you all these valuable things. Instead of it, you are spoiling others... As a punishment the Sovereign-Supreme offers you as a prey to the grave! What should man do to prevent this from happening?

You must understand the purpose for which the Sovereign-Supreme created man. By understanding the purpose, you must work hard. You must enrich the nature which was bestowed with benefaction by the Sovereign-Supreme... Enjoy the harvest it gives and also give it to others. That is the Dharma [virtue, charity] of life. If man had understood it, there would not have been a fight for the deed of land, and there would not have been a brutal blood thirst to kill others. You would have lived happily with your fellow human beings, and you would have fulfilled your duties and after completing your responsibilities, you would have fed your body to the pests and you would have been happy by surrendering your soul at the feet of God. Unable to comprehend this duty of mankind, man thinks himself to be superior and thinks that his knowledge is the source for everything and he becomes a victim to the temptations of demons and commits sins.

By believing this as rationalism, he loses all the valuable virtues and suffers a lot. The work of this Nemophilist, Wayfarer is to rescue mankind from this desperate situation and to destroy the devilish demonic mob that persecutes mankind, and to make the mankind understand about the virtues of yagham [upper world]. That was the purpose of my birth. But the demons were aware of God's plan of reforming the whole thing and immediately they sent the fakes to intrude. They fabricated a plan against God, who descends to the world for his divine duties... and preached that a Godman will be having a beard, he will be wearing saffron dress, he will sit on a tiger's skin, like this, the demon's race has created a false image of Siddhas [Mystics] and Devis. [Goddesses] Do not get deceived! You are already undergoing punishment for the mistakes you have committed without understanding the purpose of your birth. Don't get deceived by such fakes any longer! God is not an actor.

God is the air that rises from your navel, God is soul. You cannot see him... Like how you realise the invisible air when you see the leaves, plants, climbers, waving, similarly, you can only realise God! If that realization has to develop within you, first believe that kindness is soul. When you cannot even create the seeds, don't become arrogant by thinking that you have created the world, and you are making the world to function. Give up that arrogance. Believe that you are just a tool and there is someone who operates it. Only this belief will do good. Only this belief will make you rational. Otherwise, you will ruin the country by believing your ignorance as rationalism! Only because of your ignorance you become a victim to the wrath of nature and trapped in water, fire and storm! Will this deluge stop? Yes. It can be stopped... It will cease after the destruction of the sins that occur in this age and also after the establishment of Dharma.

All the virtues will emerge only after the destruction of sin... Gods, Goddesses, and Siddhas will come close to the people. Humans on the other planets will also come to this human world. They will not have any disguise, any worship or prayer. There will be no work to break the mountain to create a lifeless statue! They will live with us. By drenching with sweat they will work hard. They will not ask for money to perform their duties... They will do their duties for which God sent them to this world. How are you going to find them? With your knowledge? or with your soul? If you understand it, the degeneration of this human world will stop and the rule of Dharma will be established.

23. WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN YAGHAVA AND US?

One day a young man came to me who had a belief that questioning wisely and knowledge alone will captivate others and it will reveal his intelligence to the world. He bowed down to touch my feet! Right away I said, "Son! Why do you want to worship me...? Go to your house.... Worship your parents. Worship the land that bears you. Worship the farmers who protect you. Worship the grain that gives your life. Worship the river which teaches you about the philosophy of life. Worship the elders. If you adore me as an elderly person and touch my feet, that's right. But if you want to worship me by thinking that I am Swami, God or sage, then it is not right. The real sages and recluses are those who show you a right path. By obeying the command of Gods, they do their duty. Worshipping them is like bribing the officials who are appointed to serve the people to do their duty!

The one who expects such honour from people cannot be a true saint or recluse! When I said this, the young man said "Swami! I have a doubt and need a clarification". I said " I am not Swami! I am a Nemophilist, a Wayfarer, a Hunter. Like you, I am also a human being". He said" That is what I doubt, Sir. There is a royal appearance for an emperor. There is a uniform for Policemen. Likewise, there should be an exterior look for sages which should differ them from normal human beings. Isn't it? But you look like us. You smoke cigarettes. You are travelling in a car and doing business. Why is there no difference between you and us?"...Immediately, I started to laugh. I said "Pure heart is the disposition of recluses and Godly incarnations. Not expecting any benefit in return for performing duty and the maturity to be kind to others, and also an appearance that does not differentiate from other human beings are the qualities of Godly incarnations...

Why do you call Lord Rama [According to Hindhu mythology, Lord Rama is an incarnation of Lord Vishnu] an incarnation? Why was that incarnation of God born in the palace? Why did he go to the forest? Why did he fight? He was born as a human being and he faced all the problems of human beings and proved himself as superior among all human beings... That's it! I do have the qualities, comforts, and troubles of today's man. but the difference between you and me is in how I take it.... To understand it, I will tell you a story. Listen! Once upon a time there was a king. His ministers told him about a sage and praised him for his simplicity and genuineness. So the king wanted to meet him somehow. He went to see the sage. He bowed down before the sage, and said, "You are my Guru [guide, teacher] now. So you should come with me and stay in my palace".

But in his mind, he thought that the sage would refuse him, as real sages don't wish to live in palaces. Contrary to his thought, the sage accepted the king's request and he prepared to leave for the palace with the king. The King was shocked. He was perplexed whether the sage was a deceiver or his ministers had given false information about the sage. Then the sage asked the king to bring his chariot as they are going to live luxuriously in a palace. The king's confusion increased even more. He thought that the sage was a deceiver and he was definitely mesmerized by the disguise of the sage. But the king thought that he should keep up his word. So, he brought the chariot and asked the sage to sit in the chariot and brought him to his palace. After seeing this, on the way, people said "The king is looking confused. But the sage is looking happy. What would have happened?" They started talking like this. As the sage went to the palace, he started to live luxuriously by wearing rich outfit and ornaments, and by eating delicious royal food, he lived happily.

One day the king's confusion reached its climax, and he thought he would go mad if he did not question the sage... He went to the sage and said 'Swami! I want to ask you a question'. The sage said "Ask me without any hesitation!". The king said "As you came to the palace, I could not see any difference between you and me. You are also eating delicious food like me. You are wearing grand clothes like me. You are involved in amusements. At least I have responsibilities and the works related to it and also a lot of worries. You don't have it either. What is the difference between us then? In what way are you superior to me? That's why I didn't come to you to seek your advice like before.... What is the difference between you and me? This is the question which I wanted to ask you. Answer my question!".... Sage smiled, and said, "Your suspicion is correct. Do you need an explanation for that? Come with me!" By saying so, he left the palace with the king. On the way, they crossed a river. But he did not explain anything to the king. His silence annoyed the king and restlessly he asked the sage "When will you answer my question? If you go a little further, we will reach the border of my country." The frustrated king said "Tell me here itself".

Sage said "What? Have we reached the border? Well, come there, I will tell you". The irritated king reached the border of the country with him. By stopping the sage who was about to cross the border, King said "We have reached the border and I can't cross the border". Sage said "Well, we are not coming back. Would you like to come with me? The King was shocked! The King said 'How can I come with you? How can I leave my country, palace, property, wife, children, people and come with you?'. Sage looked at him and smiled. He answered "Do you understand the difference now? I am not going to look back at your country, your palace and luxuries. When I was in your palace, I owned everything but I did not consider anything as mine. But you own everything.... and also you are considering that everything belongs to you. This is the difference between you and me.

I am going now. Saying so, the sage gave back all the ornaments and rich garments to the king and went off. Only then, the king realized his ignorance." "This is the answer to your question.... You are thinking that you have everything. I don't think that I have anything. But, I think my sepulchre, the burial bit, belongs to me.... That's all! Rest of it, which came with me, lived with me, and will not come with me..... It is my strong feeling. That's what the sound of birds and the movement of the air inside me, trying to make me realise! Whatever I realise, I am giving it to the world. Those who come to me say that they realize my power, which is an outcome of my detachment, through which they get all the goodness in their lives... I am not responsible for it. By blessing them as "Be happy", the duty of this way-farer is over.

24. GLORY OF YAGHAVA

Those who come to me and think that they are benefited by me are asking my permission to share their experiences to the world... They are worrying by saying "When the lie is adorned and dancing in the streets, why should the truth be dumb?" The author also persuaded me to consider their feelings and not to deny them... Hence, some of the experiences of the people are as follows:

Experience of this week- Jai Mangalraj:

"Look here! Many people come here. They say that many things happened and relate their experiences...

Even if I say that I am not aware of anything they are not believing my words. That's why I say, everything happens because of your belief. But, the crowd is still gathering here.

There are people who believe and on the other side there are also people who don't believe and keep on criticising ...The appreciations and criticisms do not bother me. My work is to tell the truth to the world and I am doing it. That's all!

"Sir will say so. But truly, he has immense divine power. He is the reason for my growth. If he was not there, there would not have been peace and happiness in my family."

Saying so, Jai mangalraj expressed his overwhelming emotion. His words revealed his experiences about Yaghava's divine power!

He was living in Mogappair, Chennai and he has four children. Being a staunch true Christian, how did he become Yaghava's devotee, is really a great surprise! He himself told us about this. He said “12 years before I met sir. But my wife and children saw him even before me.

I had made a chamber and had given work to many people. During that time, the stones manufactured in our chamber were not strong enough. I thought that it was something which happens naturally.

But it continued to happen repeatedly for four to five times. So, I was confused! Then a person told me that it was a work of black magic done against me. Though I had no belief in such things, I went to some sages. They were so particular about plundering my money and charged about 2000 to 3000 rupees. Nothing changed. It was on this occasion, my wife and sons heard about him and went to meet him. I was not even aware that they are going to visit him”

Mrs. Saroja Mangalraj continued the talk:

“It was a hot day. We were standing there. First he said, "Why did you come? Go away!" Saying so, he tried to expel us. I said " All told us to meet you! So, we came here! If you ask us to go back, we will leave". I asked him to give at least some water. Then he called us and gave water to us. I drank the water and left. We visited him during May month and also it was a hot afternoon. When we came out after visiting him, we felt so cold as if we were in A.C. Not only I felt so, even my sons told me the same. It was so surprising. I could not understand anything. Immediately I removed my foot wear and placed my feet on the floor. Even the floor was too cold. There was no change in that feeling until we travelled about 3 kilometres by bus after visiting him. I also told my husband about this experience.”

Mangalraj continued:

“I did not consider it seriously... Also I didn’t go to him immediately. After a week, Suddenly I had a thought to meet him. So, I went to meet him. As he saw me, he immediately said "You are a little late". I didn't understand how to call him. So I called him ‘Annachi’. [In rural Tamil language, Annachi means Brother] Then I had a doubt whether it was correct to call him like that... I also asked him whether it was correct to call him that. He answered me by smiling, "You can call me that". Then he caught my hands gently. I started to tell him about my problems. He said, "I will take care! Be Brave! " and gave me courage by his words.

I don’t know what he did. After that, there was no problem in my chamber. Not only this. I can pile up many experiences like this. Once for me....” As Jaimangalraj said these words, tears started to roll down from his eyes. His wife Mrs. Saroja continued to say:

“Once, he had shortness of breath. His pulse started to slow down. Doctors asked me to take him back from the hospital to home. We were all scared and tense. In this situation, my son visited Sir and cried to him by stating that “My father’s condition is very serious. Looks like he is going to die” By hearing Munivar's [God] angry words, my son was astonished. That is....”

25. YAGHAVA'S GRACE

After listening to my son about his father's serious condition, he said "Who told you that? You just go...Your father would have cured and risen from his bed and sat up"

When he returned back, as he said, his father was sitting on the bed and he was completely cured. We could not understand it by analysing, how it happened? Why to speak all these? I will share my own experience. Only then you can understand it to some extent."

Saroja Mangalraj continued after a short break with a great suspense:

"I had a severe pain in my stomach. I was bearing it for a long time. I didn't disclose anything to Sir! The pain started to increase day by day. Thereafter, one day we consulted Dr. Seetha Ramani at Ponnammal nursing home. They asked us to go for a scan.

They said that there was a tumour in my uterus almost the size of a coconut, by looking at my scan report. Also they said that it has to be removed by an operation. I was admitted to hospital on the suggestion of the doctor to undergo an operation... It was decided that the operation shall be done two days later. At that time, I thought – to consult Sir about it.

Then we went to Medavakkam and met him. As we disclosed the matter, he started to yell at us and also he scolded us very badly... "What....an operation? Go away... No need for an operation"... He replied angrily and asked us to take another scan and see! Though we were embarrassed that he was yelling at us badly, we also believed if he said anything there would definitely be a reason for it. We decided to go for a scan again. It was really surprising, there was no tumour at all. Even Dr. Logu Muthukrishnan saw that scan report and was surprised.

But I understood one thing very clearly. None of his words had failed so far. Those who wrongly understand it will definitely misunderstand...

Jaimangalraj continued to speak after his wife:

“Not only this,... My son met with a bike accident in which his leg muscles were torn and his bones became visible outside. There were a lot of scratches on his face.

His face became grotesque. We decided to do plastic surgery. Only then sir told us that nothing is required. His face will not become grotesque. Truly, there was not even a single scar on his face.

Is it possible for a person to be even without a scar, who has driven at a speed of 110km on his bike and got 70 scratches and wounds after that accident? It happened because of his grace. Dr. Logu Muthukrishnan happened to see this also.

Not only all these. Each and every movement that happens in my family is all due to him. You can't see anything else in my home other than his portrait. Even though I am a Christian, there is nothing to wonder why I am like this. Because, Sir is my God.

Mrs. Saroja continues to speak after her husband:

“His heart is like a child. He is just like a father who feels happy by looking at his children's progress... I have not given anything to him. But, he has given me abundantly. I used to visit him every Thursday. Rarely, it would have been around four to five times that I would have missed to visit him in twelve years. Many of the people say that they don't understand what he says and call it 'mere blabbering'. We know about that. When the bulb glows, we understand that there is electricity passing through the wire. Similarly, if we want to understand him, we should realise him by approaching him. According to me, it is absurd to analyse him by using our knowledge instead of realizing!" says Mrs. Saroja with clarity in her speech.

"To tell you shortly, even in my son's marriage, he was the one who decided the brides for my sons.

Even in the marriage which happened recently in our house, he said, "The bride is very nearby, just within three kilometers. I can see it". It happened so.

Many questioned me that "Being a Christian, is it good to behave like this?" I never cared about it. We should worship God when he is seen by our own eyes. Prayer that is realized is more beneficial than Prayer that is not realized. I don't have any doubt. Yaghava is the one who bless us for our prayers!"

He said these words with deep clarity and gave us the marriage invitation of his daughter.

To our surprise, even on that invitation God Yaghava's picture glows. "That is not just a photograph. It is the very base of my life." Jaimangalraj says with a lot of emotion. Is it only for him?

26. YAGHAHA'S WORDS – GOD'S WORDS

“The human mentality is to seek the proof of everything. It is quite natural... Did they accept Galileo when he said that the world is a sphere? We have heard that the snakes will devour frogs. But, Sir said that frogs will devour snakes. Elephants will eat meat. Everyone mocked his words... What happened? It was published in newspapers that an elephant ate meat in Africa.

Also, a frog swallowed a snake in Hyderabad. What to say about this now?

Because, Sir tells us about those things that cannot be analysed through our knowledge. We need competency to even criticize that. If we would like to test the quality of gold, at least we need a touchstone to test it... Without that, if the bricks and pebbles wish for it, what can be done?

Gopal Raj speaks precisely.

Gopal Raj who lives with his wife and children in Virugambakkam is a Lorry owner, and he who is in transport business has a different experience to relate.

“I saw sir in 1982. I was working at a place during that time. “Be patient. You will make progress in your life” he said. Those words were true. I never expected this kind of good life which I am living now. This progress and the prosperity in my life were all given by him. I don't have any doubt in it”

Gopal Raj, who spoke emotionally, continued his speech after a short interval.

"It is said that the worst thing in the world is hunger. According to me, something worse than hunger is jealousy! Why does man not understand that if there is jealousy, it will not let us to live in peace and it will not let others also to live in peace. That was a cruel experience that I came across in my life.

It had been a few days since I started my business. Slowly the business developed and some people were not able to tolerate it. I don't want to mention anyone. I would be fine, and all of a sudden I would suffer from a severe cold fever.

I would visit the doctor and would take medicines and injections. Then I would get cured. Not for a day or two, I was admitted to Vijaya hospital for about 18 days. Doctors checked me and said there was nothing to worry about. But there was no change in my physical condition.

At this stage, one day, I spoke to sir on the telephone. Immediately Sir said, "Go back to your house. You don't have any problem". Doctors told me to take rest for one more week and then leave. I did not listen to them. I immediately set out to meet sir."

He handed me a coin of one rupee and said "Don't be afraid, I will take care. You can go." I returned back. That's all. I didn't get any fever or any other troubles after that...

But, When I was admitted to hospital, my weight was about 85kgs. 40 kgs reduced in fifteen days. At that time, relatives of my wife who came from their native place, took my wife along with them to her native place in order to attend a function. There, some relatives told her 'Some have done black magic to your whole house. You need to rectify it immediately or else it is dangerous'. My wife was afraid of the news and shared the same with me. I told her that sir would take care of everything.

But in a few days my wife's health deteriorated. She was not able to cook or take care of children. Nearly she was bed ridden. Again I had to roam around hospitals and doctors. It was then, I remembered that I did not inform Sir about the sorcery told by my wife. When I went to meet sir, he said to bring my wife.

I discharged her from the hospital and we went to meet him. He said. "Are you afraid? Don't be afraid of anything. I am here to take care of you." and he sprinkled water on her face. He also told her to drink some water. He said, "Be brave. I will take care." Even then, he did not disclose that he destroyed the witchcraft done against me. Then I recalled my physical condition when I was in hospital. I had a great fear that I would die. How did the fear vanish from my mind?

How did that fear leave me? How did I become courageous? I could not understand it. It is enough if we meet sir, and if his divine vision falls on us. Any kind of suffering will go away from us. This is my true experience.

Gopalraj, who continued his talk, was silent for a while. There, in the room of his house, Yaghava's young age photograph was hanging on the wall. He looked at that photograph for a while and started to talk with a deep thought, and by shaking his head, continued. "This was also one of my experiences with sir. I can line up many small events like this. The day would be so hot. He would ask me to come. While asking me to come, he would say, "You are going to drench completely in rain, while reaching here." Before I left to meet him, I would think "What a sunny day? It is too hot" But as he said, by the time I reach Medavakkam, it would start raining and I would stand drenched in front of him. We can't understand how he says all these. Whatever he says, will happen. Because, it is not the words of a human being to change. It is the words of God." He continued his talk, with some hesitation...

"Let me tell you a miracle that will astonish you. But it is not necessary to mention the name of the girl who is involved in this matter. Because she is leading a happy, peaceful family life with her kids. That life should not be disturbed. That's why I am avoiding her name" he started like this.

That incident cannot be imagined at all.

27. MIRACLE OF YAGHAHA

There is nothing worse than harbouring evil thoughts in our mind. It is a noble quality of every human being to keep his mind pure and immaculate. That is the aim of life. Elders have been advising this for a long time. What is the use? There is no change in human nature.

If it is not so, the girl who was looking forward to her marriage would not have cried. The parents who were in search of a bridegroom for their daughter, would not have been in mental distress.

What was that serious matter?

Gopalraj continues:

“It was also one among the wealthy families in Chennai. They had only one daughter. Parents wished that their daughter should get married. It was at that situation, an unexpected incident took place!”- he continued his talk with some hesitation.

"I don't know how to say this. That girl's breast started to secrete milk. Her blouse would get completely wet within fifteen minutes. Even if she changes another blouse, again in another fifteen minutes it will also get wet.

A girl's breast will start to secrete milk only after her marriage and that too after she gives birth to a baby. If it happens to a girl who is unmarried, just think how her state of mind would be? Because of this, that girl cried and became mentally upset. Even the parents could not understand the reason and could not understand what to do.

So, they visited doctors thinking that the doctors would find out the reason and a remedy for it. Complete confusion. Even the tablets lost their power. Amidst this, the girl was frustrated. She could not meet or talk to others who came to her home... She couldn't go out peacefully even for some time. She couldn't attend any function, drama or cinema. Because her condition was so pathetic that she had to cover herself with a shawl and carry three or four blouses and inner wears and had to change it for every fifteen minutes, then how can she go out? The girl who was roaming around happily and briskly was completely fed up. She felt shy even to meet her friends. She felt weird within herself and suffered without any interest in life.

The parents suffered in both ways because the health of their daughter was getting spoiled, and on the other side, they worried about her mental depression.

All the more, they were worried that their daughter's future life may get affected if this matter spreads among their relatives... They were pressurized by worries. They felt distressed as if darkness in all the sides, and walls were blocked all their ways. It was then someone told them to meet Sir.

When auspicious time comes, all the good will happen by itself continuously. They went to meet Sir with their daughter. The girl felt shy to get down from the car. So, the parents left the girl in the car and went inside and stood before him... 'Where did you come, go away!' said Sir. They cried and shed tears by saying 'You only have to save our daughter somehow'.

After a minute, he said, 'Where is she? Is she in the car? Tell her to come here.' That girl also went inside with her blanket and extra clothes to change. He said, 'Why dear, Are you afraid? Don't worry. Go and sit inside' and he gave her some water to drink.

He also added "Have some coffee and then go!". But the girl was afraid that she might have to change her dress again. Then, Sir said 'Why are you wrapping this blanket? No need! Throw it off'. She also threw away the blanket.

Then he started to talk with her parents. While talking he said, "Even if it is too late, and even if your status has changed, can you break your promise?" They could not understand and they blinked... He spoke fastly 'Didn't you understand? Did you promise to someone before you became wealthy that you will marry your daughter to him? As that person is not equally wealthy like you, did you search for a wealthy groom?' and laughed.

Those who heard this stood up in shock saying 'Sir'. He continued to speak "Ok. Don't worry. I will take care. Now, do you understand the reason for whatever happened to your daughter? You decided to go against your words. He decided to destroy your daughter's life. He can't face you directly. Because, you are rich. So he approached a wizard. He did black magic against your daughter! Poor girl! Only your daughter was afraid and affected by all these'". - While talking, Sir turned inside.

He asked that girl, "Are you fine?" Only then the girl realized that it had been more than half an hour. But nothing happened like before. She felt so happy. She came by running and prostrated herself and fell on Sir's feet.

Sir smiled and said, "Don't be afraid. You came here. Didn't you? There is nothing to fear. I will take care" Immediately, the parents spoke hesitantly and stammered. They said, " Should we not look for a groom outside? ". He replied, "It is not necessary. You can search for a groom outside. You will find a groom soon. Marriage will take place in a grand manner. Do not worry. Be happy”. Saying so, he blessed them and sent them.

Now, that girl is leading a happy married life with her two kids. A good and peaceful life. If it is true that the girl is leading a happy life today, the reason was sir only. This was an incident which happened before my eyes.

People may ask, whether is it possible to show God in front of eyes? But where is there any need for God to descend the earth and evince himself as God? God is for the believer. Need not bother about others.

How can one know that current is passing through the wire? We can know when the bulb glows. Similarly, only by approaching divine people, we can understand their supreme powers. Without doing that, talking without knowing anything as we feel is wrong.

I think about only one thing. The Cauvery river which originates from Kodagu hills joins the sea after crossing through Mysore, Salem, Trichy, Tanjore. If we think for a second, we can understand one thing. If we see that river as a straight line of water, and its way from its birth place to sea,

We could clearly understand that Cauvery was neither born nor mingled in the sea. Similarly, is also Sir! He is neither born, nor is he going to die. This is the truth”. Gopalraj completes his narration by expressing his heartfelt emotions. This is his own experience. Sathiyamoorthy’s experience was very different.

28. FOR EVERYTHING, YAGHAVA IS THE LIMIT AND END!

Sathiyamoorthy started to narrate his experience by saying, "I have never been so worried for anything in my life. Even when I came out from transport, I didn't worry. I started a Crusher business and had a loss of fifteen lakhs, then also I didn't worry! But eyes are not so... That's where I was shattered into pieces."

How tragic it is for a person, if he happens to lose his eye sight who wishes to see and enjoy the jumping waves, beauty of the flowers, tender walk of the children, playing birds, and dancing seedlings and the whole beauty of the universe?

The state of Sathiyamoorthy was also the same. As usual, he was returning home after finishing his work. At that time, something hit his eye hard. It was a bee!

He drove it away and continued. Before he reached home, the pain became severe. Water started to shed from his eye. Next day morning, one complete side of his face was swollen and his eye was gone inside. He ran to consult a doctor. After examining his eyes, the doctor gave him a shocking answer, "Retina is completely affected. Eye transplantation is the only option. Anyways I am giving you the drops. Keep it bandaged for about fifteen days. You should come daily and get medicines applied. Let's see."

Sathiyamoorthy was worried a lot about this by thinking, "What a test is this?". Immediately, he felt that he should inform Appa [Tamil word means Father, and God Yaghava is called as Appa, by his devotees].

Appa?

Yes. He mentions God Yaghava as Appa. There was a lot of emotional attachment in the words of Sathiyamoorthy who was a devotee of God Yaghava for more than ten years.

Belief should not get distracted by distrust... It should be unquestioned. When a question rises, trust starts to wobble. Belief without any kind of distraction will give you victory in all stages and in all fields." We could see that complete trust in his words.

"I left immediately. I went straight away from the hospital to meet Appa. " Don't worry! Nothing will happen. Be brave. Ok?" he said these words with his bold voice and with a smile.

The fear in me disappeared at once. I went to the hospital and applied medicines to my eye. Nearly 14 days went on like this.

Though the doctor said the bandage can be removed the next day, he also said he couldn't find anything positive.

I was not afraid even in that situation. Because, Appa said so... It is not necessary to worry after hearing a positive word from him. I had that clarity and strong belief.

Next day morning I went to the hospital. There were few people waiting. So, I had to wait for a few minutes. Suddenly a very bright light gleamed outside... Since my eyes were tied up, I couldn't understand exactly what was the situation outside! I thought that electricity might have gone and come back. I asked my wife about it. She said nothing happened like that.

But I was still able to see that bright light. A bright ray started from that light and penetrated into my eyes. It might be less than a minute. That ray as well as the brightness disappeared. I couldn't understand what had happened to me. Meanwhile, the doctor called me. We went inside.

The doctor opened the bandage and checked my eyes. He said, "Good time to your sir! It is really a miracle that your eye which is 99% chanceless to get cured is healed and the vision is restored". But I was not surprised. I only recalled Appa's words in my memory.

The words of Appa "Nothing will happen. Be brave. I will take care". reverberated in my ears...We thanked the doctor and left. But my mind was emotionally moved.

It was just seven words. Only seven words. Those are the Vedic words that made me stand up!

After the emotional talk of Sathiyamoorthy, his wife continued. "You can also question me as why did we go to doctor when we have such a great belief in him. But do you know what Appa says?

"It is essential to go to a doctor when you get a disease in your body. But I will take care that the disease does not affect you... If you have any disease, you should not avoid the doctor to consult, to get cured...."

Next to his wife, Sathiyamoorthy started talking.

"Just one thing... Science has developed. Human beings send rockets to Saturn and Jupiter. You can question me' 'Is it not insane in this age, when a human can see the extreme corner of the world by sitting here itself!" No. Definitely not. I will tell you more about it.

We fill the inside of the bicycle with air. We have an air pump for it. We fill air by using that pump. But, is that air inside that pump? No. It's only the air that is outside gets into the tube when we give pressure... isn't it?

Similarly, the God who rules this universe, shows us an image. Those who understand it, will go in search of him...and will get benefit out of it.

Those who don't understand, criticize very badly... But, he doesn't worry about all these things. Where is there any worry for God?" said Sathiyamoorthy clearly.

"Science has improved a lot, right from bullock carts to Hyundai cars! Why do we only have the wheels in a round shape? It can be changed into square or triangle right? But, it can't be done...! There is a limit for any change. That is God! In other words, it is Yaghava!" completed Sathiyamoorthy with soul felt gratitude.

29.GOLD WILL BE AVAILABLE BUT NOT GRAINS!

Sathiyamoorthy's son Sabarinath spoke to us by proving the Tamil proverb "Thaai ettadi paaindhaal, kutty pathinaaradi paayum"... [A Tamil proverb which means if the mother leaps 8 feet, the kid will leap 16 feet]. Being a M.B.A. student in Anna university, what does he think about Yaghava?

"The worst mind-set of human beings is to search for proof of everything. Before sharing my experience, I would like to tell you a matter.

"You may have to cross the dead bodies, while you walk. There will be dead bodies all over the streets. Gold will be available but not grains". These words were said by him. He has cautioned us already that the destruction of the world will start from 9/9/99 at morning 5.00 AM.

What is happening now?

Now-a- days, have you noticed while you read the newspaper? Where is there any news about the death of one person by accident? Thousands of people have lost their lives in the cyclone which hit Orissa. Many people have been sent from Delhi to cremate the bodies.

We have seen how people ran and fought for the food packets thrown from helicopters! What is the use of gold, when there is no way to get food.? This is what he already said. Believing or not believing his words is up to you". -

Sabarinath spoke continuously, and took a break and continued.

“Ok! You may ask me about my experience! I have many incidents to share, but I will share with you an instance as an example.

It was the time when I was in my +2! That was the day of the chemistry exam. I prepared well. I answered all the questions. Somehow, I failed to write the answers to all three questions and that too, it was 20 marks questions. I realized my mistake only after coming out of the examination hall.

That is out of 200 marks I have not answered 60 marks. It was really shocking! My heart was shattered and I cried as I reached home.

My mother told me to visit APPA [Father] once. I was thinking about him deeply for a minute. I did not leave immediately to meet him. At that moment, I saw a news telecast on Television. The news was as the question paper leaked, the chemistry examination will be re-conducted. All my fears and worries changed into happiness at that very moment! I didn't even go to meet him and tell him about my problem. I thought to myself and prayed to him... That's all”

Sabarinath continued after a little silence.

“It was a Pongal festival day. We went to Appa's house and he invited us to spend some time in the garden. It was an evening. The sky was red in colour. We were just sitting there talking. Suddenly I saw a flock of birds, not in 100s but in 1000s flying there. Straight above in the place where we were sitting, all the birds flew around in a circle not once, but for multiple times! This circling prolonged for about 5 minutes and all of the birds disappeared.

There are many incidents like this, but it is not necessary to say everything..... because people who don't believe anything, will not believe whatever you say...

I can say one more incident. He didn't predict the incidents that would happen 5000 years later. But he is foretelling about the incidents that are going to happen in 2 years, 5 years or 10 years.

If we wait, we can understand whether it was true or not. Let's have some patience ... I am not able to understand why people don't have that patience to wait and watch till then?

Sathiyamoorthy started to talk after the casual speech of his son Sabarinath.

"I have three sons in my family... My elder son Sabarinath is studying MBA. My next son, Gopinath is studying B.E Arch. My last son Raghunath is studying B.E. Appa[father] is responsible for all of my sons' education and my progress. All the credit goes to Appa. I have no doubts about it.

At the same time, I would like to say this also. Once I also used to visit many temples. After meeting Appa, I stopped to visit temples.

What does he say? Did he say anything that can't be done?" Worship your father and mother"... Is it something that cannot be done?

O.K. He says "Work for your food." One who gets from others cannot live happily. The one who gives to others will not fail" "The life of the one who eats by getting from others is meaningless' '... This is also right. Isn't it?

He has never said at any time that "Worship me. Come and visit me"— "Do your duty. Eat and live by working hard. Worship your parents." That's what he always says. Can't we do that?" We asked Sathiyamoorthy, "Have you ever visited other saints?"

Sathiyamoorthy answered strongly, “No, I haven’t visited any other saint. I don’t know about anyone. Also, I don’t have any eligibility to say anything about them. Appa can say. He is the right and eligible person to talk about them.

Secondly, why should I worry about poison when I am already there with elixir. Why think about it?

Yaghava is the elixir that saves us. I never think about anyone else when he is there. I will never think...”

Ok, let’s see what Bose says....

30. YAGHAHA'S DIVINE POWER

Appa used to say “Only unsold object needs advertising. What is the necessity to advertise the object being sold well?” Bose started his talk.

Bose who has a mosaic business in Ekkaduthangal, Chennai has two daughters and a son. He shared his experience in detail and told us about his position when he started his business, and also about the facilities and comforts he has today. His tone revealed strongly that Yaghava was responsible for his prosperous life today...

The divine power is not revealed through miracles. It is something which has to be realised. Why because, many people who performed miracles couldn't get over from that stage. But Appa is protecting everyone without performing any miracles, and by only through his words.

"Work hard for your food. Worship your parents. Do not live by cheating others".

These are the words that he very often says to everyone. He was not the only person to utter these moral words for the first time. Even before him, many have said this. When it is so, you may wonder how his words have any uniqueness?

If we have to answer this question, all those who talked about these morals before him were all sages. But Appa is not a sage... He is doing his duty. He tells everyone about how he lives., and that's the most important difference..." Bose started his talk with a long suspense. He stopped and again continued after a break.

“I know Appa for about 15 years. But I don’t know that he was God Yaghava. At that time the work of polishing the mosaic was going on, and he used to supervise it. After ten years when the building work of Brahmasthalam [Yaghava's divine dwelling place] started, he called me and gave me work, and at that time I became sick.”

I visited doctors. They did a lot of medical tests. Finally, they said that there is a tumour in my stomach and they suspected it as cancer after seeing the medical reports. Hence there was a need for a major surgery and they said there was no other option. I was afraid and could not understand what to do! I didn't go to work for four days, because I was depressed. So, Appa inquired about me, to other workers, who came to work, and they too explained to him about what had happened.

Appa told them "Ask him to come!"

I also decided to meet him. He gave me a powder and asked me to eat. I ate it there itself. He said “Nothing to worry. Be brave. I will take care of everything." That’s all!” After that I visited a doctor and again I was tested by doctors. But now they said that everything was normal. After this incident, I started to trust Appa completely. I have not visited any doctors till today after this incident...!”

Bose completed his speech and Uma, wife of Bose continued her speech.

“This incident happened many years back. All of a sudden, one day the right side of my body, means my right eye, leg, hand were all paralyzed. Doctor Mathangi Ramakrishnan of Sankara Nethralaya treated me. My eyes would be open but the right side of my body would not move. The doctors told me to undergo plastic surgery. I accepted it. After that surgery, I was cured.

After four years of this incident – it might be a year after my son's birth, again the same health issue started, but it was on the left side this time.

I was very afraid. Everyone said that bathing my head and just lying down on the floor were the causes of my illness. What is the use of telling it now? What to do for my illness?

There were young children in my house. It became very difficult. If I have to undergo surgery, how many days does it take for me to heal? I had no other way other than shedding tears. It was at that time we went to meet Appa!

What did Yaghava say at that time?

31. APPA'S [FATHER] AFFECTION

Bose continued his narration- Appa asked me "What? How are you? Are you alright?" with a usual smile of his own kind.!"

Then, I told him everything in detail. Then he asked me with a smile. "What do the doctors say? Are they saying to cut again? Then why didn't you bring your wife? What a pity! She would have been scared. You should have brought her to me." he said angrily. Next day, I brought her with me to meet him..."

"What? Are you afraid?" said Appa- Uma continued her talk now.

He said, "There is no need for an operation. Don't worry", Then he gave me a white flower. I didn't ask the name of the flower. Even he did not say anything. And another reason was – I don't have the eligibility to question him."

I received the flower. He said 'Just tie this flower with white cloth to your eyes for three days at night and sleep... Don't be afraid'

I also followed his instructions, and tied the flower with a white cloth to my eyes for about three days at night. It just seems to be a dream, if I think about what happened. The fourth day, I completely became normal and it was a very surprising incident....!"

Uma's eyes were filled with tears of gratitude while saying this. Bose continued his talk after his wife.

"I used to visit Sabarimala [a famous south Indian temple] every year. I used to visit temples. Now I have stopped going there! The reason for that was an incident!"- he continued after a small break.

“I decided to visit Sabari mala. Before starting my pilgrimage, I went to meet Appa to get his blessings!

Appa said " You will come back after a lot of suffering". I was afraid when I heard Appa's words! But still, I consoled myself with a belief that I would come back without any danger as Appa mentioned the term ‘You will return!' With that trust I started my pilgrimage. Everything happened as he said.! Right from the moment I started my pilgrimage, there were a lot of obstacles till my return. Tire got punctured... Light didn't glow after that... Then we went to the temple. Even in the temple, they made us wait for a long time as there was a Pooja [worship] going on... Even after completing everything, while returning, two people who came with us were missing ... We had to search and find them. We took a different route and reached Madurai. A lot of tension! The pilgrimage that had to give peace and satisfaction to our mind gave us only tensions... But other than that, fortunately there was no accident! That was my last pilgrimage to Sabarimala. After that incident, not only to Sabarimala, I have never been to any other temples...”, Uma, wife of Bose, continued talking.

There is only one reason for us to call him "APPA". Only a father can give that much affection and concern to his children. Only a father's heart will think that his children should study well, grow well, they should reach an exalted stage and should be wealthy!

Even our relatives, siblings, and those who are related to us, somehow will leave us at any point of time. But in any condition a father’s heart will never change as he always thinks about his children. That is why we don't call him 'Munivar' or 'God'. Without keeping him far away from us, we call him "Appa", as we consider him as very close to us, and also by experiencing that affection whole heartedly... There is no other word than APPA to honour him...!”

Uma speaks emotionally. When she continued her talk she explained one more incident. She told us about an incident where the wedding went well when everyone was worried that the wedding would not take place! This is still more surprising!

32. TRY TO ALLEVIATE THE SUFFERINGS OF OTHERS

“The daughter of my worker's relative who worked for me was about to be married. Her father's physical condition was serious! There were only two more days for the marriage. Suppose, if something unexpected happens, the marriage would be called off. On the other side – people will start to consider the girl as unfortunate. So the girl was worried! She called us and cried and told us about her condition...!”

After Uma's speech, Bose continued to speak

“It was very difficult to decide when a question arises whether father or marriage! The situation was really very difficult. Immediately, I called Sir and informed everything to him... I said “Appa! The question is about the life of a girl... You have to save that girl's life”. Appa did not speak for a minute...”

Bose continued his speech after a break. We felt that he took a break to recall that miracle in his mind.

Appa said “Ask Pushpa to keep water in a bowl and worship it for three days... Give courage to that girl. Tell her nothing will happen. I too said 'Ok' and dropped the call.”

Uma continued her talk after Bose:

“Pushpa is our first daughter. Recently, she got married... She has great devotion towards Appa. She has carefully saved whatever news came about him in the newspapers, whatever he said in his interviews, his pictures and all the things given to her by him...!” saying so, she opened the bureau which was there.

Inside it, we could see Yaghava's young photos, his photos published in newspapers, magazines and books which had news about him, a shawl that he gave to her... It looked like a collection of news about Yaghava...

She has that much of dedication and heart full of devotion towards Appa! He too was very affectionate to my daughter.... We know that whatever Appa says would have a deep meaning. So, we narrated pushpa, whatever Appa said. She also followed everything instructed by Appa! Not as a duty.... but with complete involvement and belief! Even we would be stunned by her devotion!

Because, these days children are interested in cinemas and dramas! But Pushpa is not like that! At the same time, she had an exalted devotion towards Appa! So, She did whatever Appa said, without any mistakes..."

Bose continued:

She did everything with unswerving devotion. More than that, whatever happened after that is more surprising! Nothing happened to that girl's father. He recovered and the marriage took place in a grand manner! Do you know what is more surprising? Her father, who was in a coma for one and a half years, gained his consciousness and recovered. Nobody could believe that he was in a coma as he recovered very well to the surprise of everyone! Even in this situation, Appa made me realise one thing.

I'll say it now.

That girl has never seen Appa... She shared her grief with me... I narrated the same to Appa. He didn't do this for my sake. He thought to relieve that girl from her grief.... With the help of my daughter's devotion, he helped the girl to get married happily!

God will definitely protect us. But, for that we also have to perform our duties. Being compassionate towards others, grieving for others' worries, and trying to help them to get out of their problems, revives the divinity in us.

Thus we get the grace of God. His grace will save others also! God likes this kind of compassion that we have towards others. And, I understood that he always helps us for this noble quality ...”

Uma continued her speech after her husband.

“Not only that. You just think about this marriage proposal itself- that girl was in a place; we were in a place, Appa was in another place. We talked only on the phone, but prayer took place in our home as per Appa's instructions. But, the girl's house was blessed with good results! No one went to meet each other and did this face to face...! Even then, things happened in a good way. All these incidents clearly signify a deep underlying reason.

Because, God does not do anything directly by himself. At the same time, God doesn't abandon anyone who prays to him with belief. He can do everything with the one who believes him. This is the lesson which we understood through this incident....”

As Uma finishes her speech, Bose continues;

“There is no necessity for God to evince himself as God. Even then, he expresses his divinity through his words. Many who consider him like a human being are deceived and they are led astray. But those who realised him will be protected! There's no doubt in it. My present life is a good example for that. God, who is the reason for all these miracles, is in Medavakkam, without any pomp... He calls himself a Nemophilist, a Hunter and a Way-farer!

The happiness which I experience today, does not have any prominence. But, my understanding about Appa who was responsible for all my happiness is a great bliss for me!” A great adoration sounded in the voice of Bose.

Ok... What does Raju say! Let’s see that too...!

33. YAGHAVA, THE RESOLVER OF TROUBLES

“You would have seen many people. But, you would not have seen anyone like Appa!” Raju, who lives in Ekkaduthangal, Chennai, and is involved in mosaic business started talking. Raju was the only son of the retired Agri director Singara velu and Radha, Director of Public welfare department. They had 4 daughters. Raju was their only son. Raju, who had completed his degree in agriculture was not satisfied with his job which he was doing in Coimbatore. He was highly disturbed and thought that, was it right to waste his young age wherein it was the time to work hard and attain prosperity. As a result, he came to Chennai in 1983. Ok! When did he meet Yaghava? What was his experience?

“I met Appa 14 years ago. But at that time, I didn't know much about him. He would come to the place where the tile embedding work would take place. He used to look at me in an unusual manner.

He used to look at my forehead. We can't look into his eyes directly. Such a penetrating, sharp sight. He was an elderly person. That was my opinion about him at that time. After that I did not see him for many days.

Ever since, he had told others about me that " Take care of this guy. In future, he will become a big shot". I have heard him while saying these words. It was after that I used to listen to those who talk about Appa. I used to feel very happy when I heard from others that he enquired about me. But I did not get an opportunity to meet him.

I need to say one more thing. Appa [Father] gave me a one-rupee coin. I hesitated to get it from him. People who were near me, told me to receive it and not to hesitate. I too accepted it. I brought it and kept it in the Pooja room. [prayer room]

In this situation I got married... Marriage is an instance of happiness but after my marriage, there were shocks waiting for me.

Raju stopped his talk with a suspense and then continued.

“I got married in the year 1990, but I did not have a child for about 2 years. Children play a significant role in everyone's life, as they give happiness. The innocent smile, crawl, innocent talks and the tender walk of a baby will captivate everyone. A child is the centre of attraction that keeps the whole family together. My parents were worried. My wife was mentally upset. I too was also confused. So, we decided to consult doctors and undergo medical tests.

It's after all a human mind! My mind was troubled by the unknown reason with fear and hesitation... We started roaming around each and every temple and started some religious practices like Thursdays fasting for Raghavendra, [a divine saint of south India] Saturdays fasting for Lord Vishnu, [Vishnu is protector, according to Hindu religion] and on Tuesdays and Fridays we visited Muppathamman [name of a Goddess worshipped in Tamilnadu] temple etc., We prayed to all Gods but there was no use! We decided to consult a doctor and get tested. Then we went to a very famous laboratory in Nungambakkam, Chennai. My wife and I underwent all kinds of medical tests. We were so worried about the results. When we returned home there was no peace, there were only worries.!”

As he said this, Raju's eyes revealed the past with pain. The main reason for a man's hardships which he undergoes by working, earning and saving is only for his heirs! When the result was about that heirship, what would be the condition of his mind? Even now, his voice clearly expressed that distress.

“My wife and I went to collect the results. The results stated that there is no problem with my wife, but the chances of having a child is very less in my case. I felt as if something burst out inside me. I was stunned!”

Raju continued with overflowing emotions.

34. BLESSED WITH A CHILD

We can realise how knowledgeable was Valluvar [a divine Tamil poet, and author of THIRUKKURAL] if we look carefully into his writings, in which he had hidden the entire human life within one and half verses.

Valluvar, who limited human life in every line of his writing, talks about family life.

“Kuzhal Inidhu Yazh Inidhu Enbar tham Makkal Mazhalai sol Keladhavar”

[famous poetic lines from Thirukkural]

Valluvar didn't aim to say in this verse as those who have not heard the mellifluous voice of their baby, will consider the sound of flute and the sound of harp as melodious.

Though it is the meaning of this verse, he actually aimed to say, music of flute is melodious, music of harp is also melodious but it is more pleasing to hear the sweet voice and words of a baby!

When parents hear their child's voice calling them as Mother and Father, by twisting their tongue and by moving their lips, they experience it like a miracle, and it brings goosebumps to them.

Listening to the prattle of a child is a wonderful experience, expected by those who enter into a married life – And that is the noble state of family life!

What would be the state of mind of Raju when he had to hear the negative results of his test, when he was with a great expectation of having a child? Raju continues.

“My heart was broken into pieces. I couldn’t understand what to do next. There were only longings and worries as we didn't have a child. But after that result – when I found out that I have only a ten percent chance of having a baby, those worries and longings changed into grief! What is this? The complete happiness of life and hard work becomes meaningful, only if there is an heir! If we don't have children, we get frustrated and agonised by thinking why we should work hard and save money!

Even my mind was in the same state. I didn't like anything. I didn't like to go anywhere. I was not able to speak with others. Any human being will get this kind of mental block in his life, but it is also true that after such a bitter experience, he will completely change and he will start to behave in his own way!”.

Raju continues after a small break.

“There was a wealthy person, He had a son. His son who went to foreign countries for business came back and brought sacs and sacs of husk. Father came to know about this.

He searched for his son with the intention of scolding him and said," Where is that fool? Oh my God! He has purchased husk by giving all the money" The son sent a message to his father through a letter.

It was written in the letter that “Even a broken needle will not accompany during the last journey of death”

Father felt like someone slapped him! He renounced his wealth and started his travel with a bit of hip cloth! Let us think about the story of Pattinathar [a mystic. divine poet of Tamilnadu] Renunciation was not his aim...! He didn't intend to live like a recluse! But, that one-line message had sent wealthy Pattinathar to the streets as a beggar.

Similarly, that result affected me a lot. I was roaming around the temple and worshipping the Gods. But, my mental state pushed me to that extent that I stopped visiting temples!"

There was an anguish in Raju's voice. His voice reflected his distressed feelings that prevailed at that time.

It's true that the human mind gets bewildered, and disoriented when an unexpected thunder falls on man's expectations. Raju was also in the same state of mind.

"At that desperate situation full of despair, I went to visit Appa. He asked me to bring my wife. We went together to meet him. He gave us courage by saying " Why are you worrying about those papers? Don't be afraid... You will have two children. First is a female child. Next is a male. Don't worry!"...

He gave us water and asked us to drink it. We also drank that water and returned home.

In the next two months, the doctor said that my wife was pregnant.

For three years, I visited nearly all the temples ... and prayed a lot! All my worries turned topsy-turvy, by Appa's words of two minutes! The image of Appa registered in my mind permanently.

Raju's eyes were filled with tears.

35. BELIEF IS LIFE

Necessities are the base for search. By this search man identifies new information and new dimensions.

Raju who had seen God Yaghava only as an elderly person, deep rooted his image as a father in his mind just like this. It is in this state, God is hailed as - ‘Ammayiye appa oppila maniye’ [Famous Tamil poetry, which denotes God as "Oh! Father! Oh Mother! You are a precious gem] In Thevaram and Prabhandham [famous divine poetry of Tamil literature] we come across words like, ‘Thannoppar ilappan,[Father without an equal] ponnappan,[Father like Gold] maniappan [Father like a gem].

It is not necessary to follow proper prayer methods, religious rituals, and mastery in religious treatise to realise God. This is the reason why the human heart is considered to be the great temple. We hail the noble quality of Lord Rama [Incarnation of Lord Vishnu] by saying one wife, one word and one arrow.

It doesn't only mean one wife, one word and one arrow. A heart that doesn't think about any other woman except wife. A heart that does not think or talk about anything other than what is needed to be told... A heart that has confidence and unshakable strength to do anything.

In those hearts, God dwells. That's where God likes to indwell.

People like Jai Mangalraj, Raju, Bose, Sathiyamoorthy are not scholars in religious theories or philosophies.

But these people have unanimously realised that whatever happens in their life is only because of Yaghava. That is why everything they thought happened. Their path was strewn with victories. Their mind is the reason for this. And the image of Yaghava is deeply ingrained in their minds! If it is so, who is he?

36. YAGHAVA – THE SAINT.

Under the prestigious title, "Yaar kadavul?" [Who is God?] God Yaghava has explained in his rural language about the subtleties of this universe, his wisdom gained by his experience, and his supreme power of realizing through sound. Though his speech expressed the rural Tamil slang of Nellai district, his philosophies are lofty!

The starting of this series was an outcome of an article which we had published under the title “World will be destroyed in 2000”. God Yaghava became tense when he listened to someone who read this article and immediately he called us on the phone and said "Don't scare people ... World will never get destroyed. Only the evil powers will get destroyed! Virtuous people – and those who live in adherence to the soul will not be destroyed. Soul is immortal... The comments that he shared were akin to the philosophy of the holy book ‘The Bhagavad Gita’ in which Lord Krishna says, "Soul is immortal.". As our subconscious mind induced us to meet him, we went to Medavakkam and met him. It was not an ashram or monastery where ascetics live. It was surprising that it was just a house of a family man which was filled with peace.

He appeared just exactly the same as we heard about him, when we visited him inside his house! “Come... You should not fall on my feet. I’m not a sage who wears saffron dress by carrying a kamandalam, [a water vessel usually made out of metal or mud] and sits on a tiger's skin! I’m a Nemophilist, a Hunter, a Wayfarer! Sound is God. God has bestowed me the power of realising the life of that sound. I am telling it as I pass by! Yaghava is not a person who sells his grace for money! I donate it to those who come to me by their wish.....” For each and every sentence he uttered, thousands of meanings seemed to be contained in it.

We requested him kindly "Let us start a series about you in our magazine." After thinking for a few minutes, he said, "What is there to write about me?' People will start to gather in huge numbers if you write about me... They will come here to seek oracles. So, I will write it as philosophies. Whoever can understand, let them understand. Whoever can realise, let them realise. Let the grace of God 's vision fall on those who are entitled to it. Heading will be 'Yaar Kadavul'.

We were thinking that God, Lord, Sovereign-Supreme, all these words have the same meaning, until we visited Munivar [God]. But, after visiting him, we got the wisdom that God, Lord, Sovereign-Supreme, are different from one another.

The One who stays on this land and feeds all the living beings is Sovereign-Supreme.

Lord is the one who makes this whole universe to function. He surveys the thought process and actions of human beings, and cautions them by saying "Do your duty, do not spoil others life, Live by your soul. '

He gave us a very different explanation about God that he is the one who makes the whole cosmos to function, and he calculates the sins and good deeds of human beings and gives the end of birth to the soul.

Sound is God, Soul is everything... Follow the path of sound that drives the soul... Human Body is mortal. Soul is immortal. He told this high Indian philosophy in the colloquial language of a normal man...

He gave us a new vision that all devastation that happens in this world today was due to the great anger of God. God is infuriated for the boundless mistakes committed by human beings!

A mother who carries in the womb gives blood. Parents who give man to the world are supreme Gods! The blessings that you cannot get by visiting 1000 temples can be achieved by worshipping parents. He told us in a bold voice that "Stop thinking that one who wears saffron clothes is God".

We asked him to explain the complete meaning of his words Nemophilist, Hunter and Way-farer!

Have to go to the forest, have to earn by cutting firewoods and carrying firewoods., and with that money should feed the parents. But the one who carried the firewoods should beg at each and every doorstep for his livelihood.

The objects collected by the hunt should be given home and the one who hunted must lie down on the street to sleep.

Should live by wandering many places and without staying at one place, by observing the world, should live by realising human feelings...

If one's childhood starts by sleeping in the graveyard, and by riding on a donkey, we can understand that God is trying to point out that he will get the power to speak with God through sound. He explained that it is a sign for the pride of wisdom. He got all such experiences at his young age. People called him 'lunatic'. Only the mother realized that her son was a mysterious incarnation of God!

If that is so, are you God? – We questioned.

He laughed and said" I am an ordinary man who foretells the message that God gives to the world!".

We questioned him further. 'If so, who is God? And what is the identity of God in this world?

"He is the one who has made your heart beat even when you are asleep.

God is the one who works continuously and he is always awake to protect this universe and all the living beings even if they sleep. That non-stop hard work is the identity of God in this world! That's why the message I convey to the world is "Work is God.!" With the power of creation – the one who can give life, by bringing it back, which cannot be done by the human, is God!

Thus, God Yaghava thrilled us by saying so many things like this in this article.

His words may seem very normal. But if each and every human decides to follow the principle-that- " My hard work is enough for me, I don't need others work for my livelihood. and I will not hurt other human beings" then will any murders, robbery, destruction be there?

Everything will attain the perfection of soul, by getting birth by itself, growth by itself, and when God completes the accounts of life, by getting the wages for the deeds committed in the life span, will avoid next birth and will attain salvation!

This is what we understood from God Yaghava's words.

Is he a saint who has supreme powers?

He never said that. Those who believe him are relieved from their sufferings by his blessings! He throws the messages conveyed to him by the Master of the Eternal world on the streets of the world as he passes by! Does that happen? Yes! There is ample evidence that it happened. If it does not happen, then there are a lot of reasons for it. But he never forces anyone to come to him. To those who seek him, he gives if he has anything to give... One who has got it with belief has gained plenty of benefits.

Is God there? Or not? Someone asked this question to a great Saint. He smiled and said" Do you want God or not? Think for yourself".

The one who questioned the Saint blinked....

"My son! You should have belief, good character, and honesty. If one fears to his conscience that if he commits mistakes he will be punished, then there is a need for God!

If one aimlessly thinks that ' I don't need anything. I am everything. If I feel right, then even murder is justice!' then, there is no need for God. What do you want? asked that Saint.

The one who questioned, answered "I need God"

Instead of doubting everything, let us believe! The one who believes will not be forsaken. Belief is life! The Saints who give that hope to the world – and do not ask money in return can be believed! If we look in that aspect and believe, then Yaghava is a saint, who has to be celebrated by this world! There is no doubt!

